

Evaluation of Conduct Record

Please be advised that programs leading to state licensure or certification may require evaluation of conduct records, such as but not limited to criminal background checks, as a condition of licensure. Specific questions regarding this matter should be directed to one's advisor, department chair, or college dean.