Notification and Authorization to Conduct Employment Background Investigation

I hereby authorize Justifacts Credential Verification, Inc, an Agent for East Stroudsburg University of Pennsylvania, to investigate my background to determine any and all information of concern to my record, whether same is of record or not, and I release employers and persons named in my application from all liability for any damages on account of his/her furnishing said information. I understand that this form indicates that a background search will be conducted and that this is my notification of that intent. I understand that the purpose of this background investigation is to determine my suitability for employment and may elicit information on my character, general reputation, personal characteristics and mode of living.

Additionally, you are hereby authorized to make any investigation of my personal history, educational background, military record, motor vehicle records, criminal records, workers compensation, and credit history through an investigative agency of your choice. I authorize the release of this information by the appropriate agencies or credit bureau to the investigating service. This authorization, in original or copy form, shall be valid for this and all subsequent reports needed as it pertains to employment.

FAIR CREDIT REPORTING ACT DISCLOSURE
(Required use under Section 604(b) of the FCRA)

East Stroudsburg University (the “company”) intends to obtain and use a consumer report or an investigative consumer report from an external consumer reporting agency for employment purposes. These purposes may include but are not limited to:

- considering your application for employment;
- making a decision whether to offer you employment with the company;
- deciding whether to continue your employment (if you are hired by the company);
- doing periodic rescreening of current employees, and/or;
- making any other employment decisions affecting you.

A consumer reporting agency is a person or business that regularly assembles or evaluates consumer credit information or other information on consumers. As an applicant or an employee, you are considered a “consumer” under the Fair Credit Reporting Act.

A consumer report may include information about your character, general reputation, personal characteristics, or mode of living, which is used or collected for employment purposes. An investigative consumer report also involves personal interviews with sources such as employers, educators, etc.

You have a right to request disclosures of the nature and scope of any investigative consumer report that the company obtains about you. You also have other rights under the Fair Credit Reporting Act, a summary of which is available at: http://www.ftc.gov/os/2004/11/041119factaappf.pdf.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

I hereby acknowledge that East Stroudsburg University may obtain consumer reports and investigative consumer reports about me from a consumer reporting agency and that they may consider information in consumer reports and investigative consumer reports as part of their decision making process regarding any aspect of my application for employment and/or continued employment with the company including periodic rescreening of current employees. I also acknowledge that I have received a copy of the Summary of Rights under the Fair Credit Reporting Act.
