

Authors' Forum Series

From idea to published book

- ESU students, faculty, and staff are invited to attend the Authors' Forum organized by the Library Advisory Committee
- Hear ESU faculty discuss the goals and inspirations behind the books that they have written
- The invited authors for this event are:
 - Dr. Sandra Eckard (English). Book title: The Ties that Bind: Storytelling as a Teaching Technique in Composition
 - Dr. Shannon Frystak (History). Book title: Our Minds on Freedom: Women and the Struggle for Black Equality in Louisiana, 1924-1967
 - Dr. Charles Warner (Communication Studies). Book title: The Team America Loves to Hate: Why Baseball Fans Despise the New York Yankees
- The event will be held in the Reception Center located in University Center on Wednesday, February 12
- The event will begin at 4 p.m., closing around 6.30 p.m.
- The evening will begin with a panel discussion, concluding with a breakout session where the authors will answer questions from the audience.