

MMA and UFC fighter Matt Hamill to Visit ESU January 24

Come see Mixed Martial Arts (MMA) and Ultimate Fighter Championships (UFC) fighter Matt Hamill on Friday, January 24, 7 - 8 p.m. in the Abeloff Center for the Performing Arts. Hamill grew up deaf and overcame many obstacles to accomplish what he has. His story will be inspirational to students, athletes, and anybody looking to overcome adversity. There will be photograph and autograph opportunities following his talk. This event is free for ESU students, faculty and staff with a valid ID and $5.00 for community members. Sponsored by the Sign Language Club, Athletic Training Department, Speech-Language Pathology Department, and the Wrestling Team. For more information, please contact Professor Susan Dillmuth-Miller at 570-422-3684.
