

The Week Ahead...

Good morning. The Week Ahead includes a listing of events and activities scheduled across PASSHE to which the public is invited. The listing is distributed every Monday during the academic year.

Clarion University of Pennsylvania

- "A Lot Like You," a film by Eliachi Kimaro, will be shown at 2 and 7 p.m., today, in Robert W. Rhoades Center, Venango College of Clarion University. A discussion of the film is planned for 7:30 to 8:30 p.m., Wednesday, also in Rhoades Center. The events are free and open to the public.
- David Kirton, reggae singer and songwriter, will perform at 7:30 p.m., Thursday, in Mosaic Café, Venango College of Clarion University. The event is free and open to the public.

East Stroudsburg University of Pennsylvania

- East Stroudsburg University will present Latino Heritage Month Speaker, Carlos Ojeda Jr., at 7 p.m., tomorrow, in Lower Dansbury. Ojeda will share his experience as a Latino male inspiring America's youth to become "masterful communicators." The public is invited at no cost.
- The film Negro (2013), directed by Dash Harris, will be shown at 7 p.m., Thursday, at the Latino Heritage Month Film Festival in Beers Lecture Hall. The public is invited at no cost.
- East Stroudsburg University will sponsor a free film festival Saturday at the Pocono Community Theater in East Stroudsburg. Because of You will be shown at 10 a.m. and Dangerous Liaisons, at noon. The public is invited at no cost.
- East Stroudsburg University will hold its sixth annual educator's workshop from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m., Saturday, in Lower Dansbury. The workshop is titled "Learner Identities and Interactions in the Modern-Language Classroom." Foreign language instructors K -16 and the general public are invited at a cost of $20.

Edinboro University of Pennsylvania

- The University Programming Board at Edinboro University will present Disney Pixar's box office smash "Monsters University" at 5 p.m., Wednesday and Thursday; 5 and 8 p.m., Friday and Saturday; and 2 p.m., Sunday, in the Frank G. Pogue Student Center Scot Cinema. Admission is free for EU students and $1 for non-students. Popcorn is 25 cents for everyone.
- Singer-songwriter and actor Ari Herstand will perform at 8 p.m., Monday, in the Frank G. Pogue Student Center Theater on the Edinboro University campus. Admission is free for EU students and $1 for non-students.
- Edinboro University President Dr. Julie E. Wollman will hold a pair of open budget forums to address the university's recently revealed Operations and Workforce Plan and related budget issues. The first forum is scheduled from 8:30 to 10 a.m.,

Thursday, in Pogue Student Center Multipurpose Room A. A second forum, also in the Pogue Center, will be held from 1 to 2:30 p.m., Oct. 7.

Indiana University of Pennsylvania

- IUP's Six O' Clock Series will present Just what did they originally intend? A casual conversation with the framers of the U.S. Constitution at 6 p.m., today, at Hadley Union Building, Ohio Room. Join a conversation with four authors of the U.S. Constitution: Ben Franklin, James Madison, Charles Pinckney and Alexander Hamilton. What would they change today? Admission is free.
- The exhibit We Two Founts: Larson and Mitchell continues through October 10 in Kipp Gallery, Sprowls Hall. Gallery hours are from noon to 4 p.m., Tuesdays through Fridays. Admission is free.
- IUP's Lively Arts will present Intensity, IUP Percussion Chamber Ensemble at 8 p.m., Thursday, at Gorrell Recital Hall, Sutton Hall. Admission is free.
- The exhibit Layers, Places in Peril will be on display from tomorrow through Nov. 9 at IUP's University Museum, Sutton Hall. Artist Judith Waller and earth scientist Jim Brey collaborate in illustrations of environmental threats confronting the world's most beautiful cities and landscapes. Admission is free.

Kutztown University of Pennsylvania

- Kutztown University professor of communication design Kevin McCloskey will host a reception for studio Médula Negra's first U.S exhibition at 3 p.m., today, in the second floor gallery of the Rohrbach Library.
- Kutztown University Provost Dr. Carlos Vargas will lead a book discussion for Completing College: Rethinking Institutional Action, from 4 to 5:30 p.m., tomorrow, in Rohrbach Library room 100B.
- Kutztown University's Biology Department, the Lehigh Valley Beekeepers and Rohrbach Library will screen the documentary Queen of the Sun at 6 p.m., Thursday, in Academic Forum room 102. The film examines honeybees and the mystery of colony collapse disorder. A panel discussion will follow. This event is free.
- Kutztown University's Music Department will host a performance by the Guillio Espel Quartet, from 7:30 to 10 p.m., Thursday, in Old Main's Georgian Room (163).
- Kutztown University's Criminal Justice Department will host a free law school forum from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m., Saturday, in Old Main room 163, the Georgian room. Check-in begins at 9 a.m. The first panel, which will provide information on what to expect in law school, will be held from 10 to 11 a.m. The second panel, on getting into and paying for law school, will be from 11 a.m. to noon. Kaplan Educational Services will give a presentation on how to draft your personal statement, from noon to 1 p.m. The law school fair, which gives attendees the opportunity to meet with representatives from several different law schools, will be held from 1 to 4 p.m.

Mansfield University of Pennsylvania

- Mansfield University will host the annual Pennsylvania State System of Higher Education Women's Consortium Conference Friday and Saturday. The theme of the conference is "Woman as Hero," with a focus on all of the amazing and courageous accomplishments of women. Author and filmmaker Jean Kilbourne will be the keynote speaker for the conference. Kilbourne is internationally recognized for her groundbreaking work on the image of women in advertising, as well as her critical studies of alcohol and tobacco advertising. The conference also will feature workshops and sessions on a variety of topics, musical events and opportunities for participants to network.

- The International Film Series at Mansfield University will present "Teddy Bear" in Danish, Thai and English with English subtitles at 6:30 p.m., today, in Alumni Hall, Room 317. The screening is free and open to the public. Seating is limited to the first 50 people on a first come, first serve basis.
- Author and educator Scott Russell Sanders will visit Mansfield University Wednesday and Thursday. Sanders will make a multi-media presentation titled "From Consumerism to Caretaking" at 7:30 p.m., Wednesday, in Allen Hall, Room 104. He will present "Hope in a Time of Environmental Crisis," at 7:30 p.m., Thursday, in Straughn Hall. Both presentations are free.
- The film "This is the End" will be shown at 8 p.m., Friday; 3 and 8 p.m., Saturday; and 3 p.m., Sunday at 3 p.m. in Straughn Hall as part of Mansfield University's Weekly Film Series. The movie is free to MU students, $1 for everyone else.

Millersville University of Pennsylvania

- Millersville University will present the biology colloquium lecture: "Where to Go and Why?" by Dr. David Browne at 4 p.m., Wednesday, in room 210.
- The film "The Day I Saw Your Heart" will be shown at 7 p.m., Wednesday, at the Millersville University library.
- Sergio Argueta will present the lecture "Gangs and Alternatives to Incarceration" Thursday in the Ford Atrium in McComsey Hall at Millersville University.
- Millersville University will present a community dialogue on the One Book, One Campus selection at 7 p.m., Thursday, in Lehr Room, Gordinier Hall.
- The Yuliya Gorenman Piano Concert will be presented at 7 p.m., Thursday, in Biemesderfer Concert Hall at The Winter Visual and Performing Arts Center.
- The opening night of the 2013-2014 artistic season for the Ware Center, Millersville University Lancaster and the Winter Visual and Performing Arts Center will take place at 6 p.m., Friday, at the center.
- Chris Koehler will perform guitar selections for his senior recital at 4:30 p.m., Saturday, in Biemesderfer Concert Hall at The Winter Visual and Performing Arts Center. Chad Wynnn will perform vocal selections for his junior recital at 7:30 p.m.
- Millersville University faculty member Dr. Anita Renfroe will perform "It's Not What It Seems" at 2:30 p.m., Sunday, in The Winter Visual and Performing Arts Center.

Shippensburg University of Pennsylvania

- The H, Ric Luhrs Performing Arts Center at Shippensburg University will host beginner and advance ballroom dance lessons beginning tomorrow and continuing until the end of October. Interested individuals may register online at www.luhrscenter.com or by calling the Box Office at 717-477-SHOW.

- Shippensburg University will celebrate Constitution Day 2013 with two events, both of which are free and open to the public. Dr. Helen J. Knowles, visiting professor of government at Skidmore College, will speak at 7 p.m., tomorrow, in Old Main Chapel. Interim President Jody Harpster and fourth-graders from the Grace B. Luhrs University Elementary School will recite the Preamble to the Constitution at 10:30 a.m., Friday, by the flagpole outside Ezra Lehman Memorial Library.
- Dr. Richard Lanigan will present "Contact Confusion in Perception: West Meets East, One Actuality Becomes Two Realities" at 3:30 p.m., Wednesday, in Dauphin Humanities Center 051. The free program, sponsored by the College of Arts & Sciences, is open to the public. Lanigan is senior Fulbright program specialist and University Distinguished Scholar and professor emeritus of communicology at Southern Illinois University. For more information, contact Dr. Hong Wang in the human communication studies department, at howang@ship.edu.
- Shippensburg University's student-run Activities Program Board (APB) will present Jose Canta, spoken word artist, at 9 p.m., Wednesday, in Room 023 in the Ceddia Union Building. Admission is free.
- The H, Ric Luhrs Performing Arts Center at Shippensburg University will host country music superstar Scotty McCreery at 8 p.m., Friday. His debut album topped the Billboard Top 200 and Top Country charts, earning him a spot in the Guinness World Records Book for being the youngest male in history to score a No.1 album on the all-genre chart with a debut release. For tickets and information, go to www.luhrscenter.com or call the Box Office at 717-477-SHOW.
- Shippensburg University will host its annual Parents & Family Celebration with a series of events throughout the day Saturday. The events will include a pancake breakfast served by Interim President Jody Harpster, the football game against visiting East Stroudsburg, and the grand buffet dinner. Details are available at clubs.ship.edu/apb.

Slippery Rock University of Pennsylvania

- Slippery Rock University's Center for Student Involvement and Leadership will host a "Day of Service and Remembrance Blood Drive" from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m., tomorrow, for the American Red Cross. The drive, in the Smith Student Center, will assist victims of the Oklahoma tornadoes and other weather-related disasters.
- The "Furnace Works" art display featuring works by June Edwards, Slippery Rock University associate professor of art, will continue through Friday in the Martha Gault Art Gallery. Gallery hours in Maltby Center are noon to 5 p.m. weekdays.

West Chester University of Pennsylvania

- West Chester University's Permanent Art Collection is on display in the Knauer Gallery through September 28. The exhibit is free and open to the public.
- WCU will host "The Big Read" Book Discussion: The Things They Carried: Art or History? at 7:30 p.m., today, in Sykes Student Union, Room 209

- Dr. Linda Hanna will discuss the benefits of using “True Colors”, an assessment approach that identifies differences in student learner personalities, to benefit instruction in science and other disciplines for any age level at the lecture: Assessing Learner Personalities for More Effective Instruction at 5 p.m., Wednesday, in Schmucker Science Center room 190. For more info, email gturner@wcupa.edu.
- West Chester University's Philadelphia site will host information sessions for persons interested in learning about completing their M.S. or B.S. in criminal justice or B.S. or M.S. in social work on Wednesday at 701 Market St, Philadelphia. For times and to register, please go to: <http://wcupa.edu/philly/>
- WCU's School of Music will host a faculty recital featuring Anita Greenlee on the organ at 7:30 p.m., Friday, in the Madeleine Wing Adler Theatre.
- West Chester University invites the community to attend a day of fun that will include a walk/run, tailgate game competition, prizes for kids of all ages, raffles, and door prizes to benefit the Make-A-Wish Foundation beginning at noon, Saturday, at Farrell Stadium.

Bloomsburg University of Pennsylvania

- Bloomsburg University will observe Constitution Day from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. , tomorrow. Events will include the game show, Who Wants to be a Constitutional Scholar; a showing of The War Room, a documentary about former President Bill Clinton's 1992 campaign; and a presentation, Environmental Law: How Regulations Come to Pass as Part of Federal Bills by Kate Gibbons of Penn Future. For more information, contact Tim Pelton, civic engagement coordinator, at tpelton@bloomu.edu.
- Writer Ann Michael will share her poetry during a reading at 7 p.m., Wednesday, in the Moose Exchange, 203 W. Main St., Bloomsburg. The reading will kick off the new season of Bloomsburg University's Big Dog Reading Series, sponsored by BU's English Department and the Center for Visual and Performing Arts, part of the College of Liberal Arts. The reading is open to the public free of charge.
- A blood drive will be held from 1 to 7 p.m., tomorrow and Wednesday, in Bloomsburg University's Kehr Union, Ballroom. The blood drive is sponsored by BU's Greek Life. Call 1-800 Red-Cross or go to www.redcross.org to schedule an appointment.

California University of Pennsylvania

- Dr. Michael Hummel, professor of leadership and security studies at Cal U, will discuss Gen. Colin Powell's career and leadership style, at 11 a.m., tomorrow, in Room 110 of Eberly Hall. The free program will precede Gen. Powell's appearance on campus at 2:30 p.m., Thursday, in the Convocation Center. Powell will give the keynote address at the Pittsburgh Diversity and Leadership Conference, which is being hosted by Cal U. The National Diversity Council has made available free tickets for Powell's address. Seating is limited and advance registration is requested. To attend the keynote address only, register online at www.calu.edu and print a complimentary admission pass, or visit the Cal U Convocation Center Box Office from 8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. Monday through Friday.

The Cal U website also offers links to the registration site for the conference, along with a list of speakers, the complete conference schedule and other details.

- Award-winning LGBTQ activist Robyn Ochs, editor of the anthology Getting Bi: Voices of Bisexuals Around the World and the Bi Women Quarterly, will share her message of inclusion and empowerment at 7 p.m., tomorrow, in room 205 of Cal U's Keystone Hall Auditorium, Room 205. Ochs is an advocate for the rights of people of all orientations and genders to live safely, openly and with full legal equality. Admission is free.
- More than 40 health care providers and industry representatives will offer information, services, screenings and giveaways from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m., Wednesday, at the 26th annual Cal U Health Fair, which will be held in the Convocation Center. Flu shots will be available for a fee. The health fair is free and open to the campus community, as well as to the public.
- California University of Pennsylvania will introduce itself to prospective students and their families at a Discovery Day event from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m., Saturday, on campus. High school students who are beginning their college search are invited to learn about Cal U's academic offerings, housing and student activities; meet faculty members; and take a campus tour. To register, visit www.calu.edu, keyword "Discovery Days."

Cheyney University of Pennsylvania

- The Synthia SAINT JAMES Exhibit continues in the Biddle Hall Art Gallery at Cheyney University through October 18. SAINT JAMES, is a world renowned multicultural visual artist, author and illustrator of more than 23 books who has garnered numerous prestigious awards. She is most noted for designing the first Kwaanza Stamp for the United States Postal Service and the national and international cover art for Terry McMillan's book Waiting to Exhale. Gallery hours are 10:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m., Monday and Wednesday, and 1 to 2 p.m., Tuesday. Admission is free.
- Andy Milne and Dapp Theory will perform at 7:30 p.m., Thursday, in the Marian Anderson Music Center at Cheyney University. The program is free and. Milne's highly recognizable group, Dapp Theory, lives at the meeting-point of lyrical jazz piano, funkified polyrhythmic exploration, and spoken word poeticism.