

The Week Ahead...

Good morning. The Week Ahead includes a listing of events and activities scheduled across PASSHE to which the public is invited. The listing is distributed every Monday during the academic year.

Indiana University of Pennsylvania

- IUP's Six O' Clock Series will host "He Continues To Make A Difference: The Story of Matthew Shepard" presented by Lesléa Newman at 6 p.m., today, in Hadley Union Building, Ohio Room. The program uses poetry, photographs and creative visualization to explore the impact of Matthew Shepard's murder on the world. In 1998, Matthew Shepard was kidnapped, robbed, beaten and murdered in Laramie, Wyoming. Admission is free.
- The exhibit Layers, Places in Peril will continue to be on display in the IUP University Museum, Sutton Hall., through Nov. 9. Artist Judith Waller and earth scientist Jim Brey collaborate in illustrations of environmental threats confronting the world's most beautiful cities and landscapes. Admission is free.
- IUP's Lively Arts will present "The Optimist," at 8 p.m., Wednesday through Saturday, in the Performing Arts Center. Written by Jason Chimonides and directed by April Daras, the production presents the hilarious, poignant journey of one family's tumultuous weekend. Note: This play contains language and situations to which some audience members may object; not suitable for children.
- IUP's Percussion Chamber Ensemble will present Intensity at 8 p.m., Thursday, at Gorrell Recital Hall, Sutton Hall. Under the direction of Michael Kingan, the concert will feature chamber compositions for percussion instruments. Admission is free.
- The exhibit "Imago," featuring paintings curated by graduate student Erika Stearly, is on display through Oct. 31 in the Annex Gallery, Sprows Hall. The exhibition includes several works from the permanent collection of the University Museum by artists Milton Avery, Philip Guston, Chuck Olson, Ned Wert, May White-Dyer and Ruby C. Williams. Admission is free.
- IUP's Department of Geoscience will present the planetarium show Voyager at 7 p.m., Thursday, in Weyandt Hall Planetarium Room 134. Voyager 1 and 2 were among the most productive robotic missions in space exploration. Both are still functioning after 36 years. See a review of their major discoveries and what they can tell us in coming years. Free admission.

Kutztown University of Pennsylvania

- Kutztown University's Political Science Club will hold a debate on national security versus privacy rights, from 4:30 to 6:30 p.m., Wednesday, in McFarland Student Union room 183. Members of the club will moderate the debate, which will consider whether Americans should be prepared to give up some privacy in return for greater security, or if the government has already gone too far in invading our personal freedoms.

- Salome Heyward, a legal expert on the Americans with Disabilities Act and disability issues in higher education, will present a program beginning at 8:30 a.m., Thursday, in McFarland Student Union room 183. Heyward will discuss human resources, employment and the ADA and physical facilities from 8:30 to 9:30 a.m.; disability issues in student affairs areas from 9:30 to 10:45 a.m.; and accommodations in the classroom and accessible technology in the university from 11 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.
- Kutztown University will honor National Coming Out Day with interactive workshops, activities and displays aimed at understanding and celebrating the 'coming out' process of LGBT individuals, from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., Thursday, in McFarland Student Union room 218.
- Kutztown University's Planetarium will host a free show titled Extreme Planets, at 7 p.m., Thursday, in the Grim Science Building room 100. A question and answer period with KU's astrophysicist and planetarium director, Dr. Phill Reed, will follow.
- Kutztown University's Jazz Ensemble, in conjunction with the Lower Macungie Library, will present a swing jazz performance as part of America's Music: A Film History of Our Popular Music from Blues to Bluegrass to Broadway at 8 p.m., Friday, in Schaeffer Auditorium. Prior to the performance, audiences can enjoy a swing jazz film at 6:30 p.m. in Schaeffer Auditorium.

Mansfield University of Pennsylvania

- The Mansfield University International Film Series will present "Off White Lies" in Hebrew with English subtitles at 6:30 p.m., today, in Alumni Hall, Room 317. The screening is free. Seating is limited to 50 people on a first-come, first served basis.
- A reception and artist's talk by Helene Farrar for her exhibit "By Maine Pond: One Year of Seeing" will be held from 4 to 6 p.m., Thursday, at Mansfield University's Loomis Gallery in Allen Hall. The event is free.
- The Body Poets dance group will perform at 9 p.m., Thursday, at The Hut at Mansfield University. The event is free.
- Despicable Me 2 will be the weekly film series presentation at Mansfield University's Straughn Hall at 3 and 8 p.m., Saturday, and 3 p.m., Sunday. Admission is $1. MU students with ID are free.
- The Mansfield University Music Department will present Octubafest at 7:30 p.m., Sunday, in Steadman Theatre. The concert is free.

Millersville University of Pennsylvania

- The Ware Center, Millersville University Lancaster will present the film "Ain't In it for My Health" at 7:30 p.m., today. Mark Lavon "Levon" Helm was an American rock musician and actor who achieved fame as the drummer and frequent lead and backing vocalist for The Band. Director Jacob Hatley's intimate documentary finds Levon Helm at home in Woodstock, N.Y., in the midst of creating his first studio album in 25 years.
- Dr. Jay Smink, author of "Helping Students Graduate," will give a keynote presentation and panel discussion during Millersville University's Education on Location event from noon to 4 p.m., today, in Lehr Room, Bolger Conference Center.

- Bill Taverner will present a lecture titled "Making Sense of Abstinence" at 4 p.m., tomorrow, in Caputo Hall. The event is sponsored by The Sexuality and Gender Institute at Millersville University.
- Millersville University's biology colloquium will present Dr. Scott P. McRobert, professor of biology at Saint Joseph's University, speaking on "Social Behavior, Shoaling and Behavioral Syndromes in Fish" at 4 p.m., Wednesday, in Caputo Hall.
- Dr. Milton Chen, a leading figure in educational media for more than 20 years, will present the Lockey Lecture at Millersville University at 7 p.m., Thursday, in the Winter Visual and Performing Arts Center.
- Roseanna Vitro will perform with Steve Rudolph, Keith Mohler and drummer Bill Goodwin as part of the Jazz in the Sky series at 7:30 p.m., Saturday, at the Ware Center, Millersville University Lancaster.

Shippensburg University of Pennsylvania

- The annual exhibition of works by faculty members in Shippensburg University's Art & Design department will open Wednesday and run through Oct. 24. An opening reception will be held at 6:30 p.m., Wednesday. The exhibit will highlight various works by the faculty in such areas as digital fine art prints, ceramics, drawing, painting and sculpture. Displaying their works will be Michael Campbell, Ben Culbertson, Steve Dolbin, Mark Moilanen, Courtney Redding and William Whiteley.
- Shippensburg University will host a program tomorrow to raise awareness of domestic violence and intimate partner abuse. The free, public program will be held at 6:30 p.m. in the Ceddia Union Building multi-purpose room. October is Domestic Violence Awareness Month. Donna Anderson, author of Lovefraud.com, is the guest speaker. Her presentation is "Love Fraud and How to Avoid it." Anderson will use her own personal experiences with abuse and her journey to recovery. More information about the program is available by contacting the Women's Center at wmscentr@ship.edu or (717) 477-1790.
- Shippensburg University's Department of Music and Theatre Arts will present "Junk Rock" at 7:30 p.m., Wednesday, as part of the annual Chapel Series. The program is free.
- Comedian Sammy Obeid will perform at 9 p.m., Wednesday, in the Ceddia Union Building Room 23 as part of Shippensburg University's student-run Activities Program Board's "After Dark" program series. The performance is free.
- Shippensburg University's APB will host Unity Day & National Coming Out Day at 11 a.m., Thursday, at the Ship Deck Amphitheater outside the Ceddia Union Building.
- The H, Ric Luhrs Performing Arts Center at Shippensburg University will host country music superstar Vince Gill at 8 p.m., Thursday. For more information and tickets, go to www.luhrscenter.com or call the Box Office at 717-477-SHOW.

Slippery Rock University of Pennsylvania

- Jampa Phelgya, a monk from the Gaden Shartse Monastery in India who has earned the highest academic degree in the Gelug tradition of Tibetan Buddhism, will lecture on "Interdependence and Dependent Origination" at 12:30 p.m., Thursday, in the Spotts World Culture Building Auditorium as part of a visit by a group of monks to Slippery Rock University. The monks will offer "Meditation for Patience and Compassion" session at noon, Friday, as part of the SRU Mindfulness Meditation Program in 225 Patterson Hall. A lecture titled "Journey to the Top of the World: Sacred Chants and Dances of Tibet" will be held at 7:30 p.m., Friday, in Swope Recital Hall. The final event is free for SRU students; $5 for the general public.
- Slippery Rock University's English Department will host nearly 75 regional high school students for a "Writer's Workshop" at 8:30 a.m., Friday, in the Smith Student Center.
- Singer Steve Lippia and the Slippery Rock University Jazz Ensemble, directed by Jason Kush, assistant professor of music, will present "Simply Sinatra" at 7:30 p.m., Friday, in the University Union as part of the SRU Performing Arts Series. Lippia uses the original charts arranged for Frank Sinatra. Tickets for the concert in the University Union are available by calling (724) 738-2018 or at the door.
- Slippery Rock University will host a "Saturday Showcase" for prospective students and their parents at 8:30 a.m., Saturday, in the Smith Student Center and a Graduate Admissions Open House for potential graduate students at 9:30 a.m. the same day in the Alumni House.
- Slippery Rock University's sport management students will host the fourth annual Rocktober Open at 10 a.m., Saturday, at Tam O'Shanter Golf Course in Hermitage. Proceeds will benefit Make-a-Wish Foundation and the Sport Management Scholarship Fund.
- The Slippery Rock University Storm Harbor Equestrian Center's annual "Sunset Serenade Celebration" will be held at 5:30 p.m., Saturday, at the center. The annual fundraiser helps support center activities. Reservations are required: Call (724) 738-2004.

West Chester University of Pennsylvania

- The 113th Anniversary International Exhibition of Works on Paper exhibit featuring works from The Philadelphia Water Color Society is on display through Oct. 26 in The New Gallery at West Chester University of Pennsylvania.
- West Chester University will present the 30th Annual Mary Kline Professional Nursing Day featuring a panel presentation, lecture series and keynote speaker Anita Symonds from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m., Thursday, in the Sykes Auditorium. Click here for more details and to register.
- West Chester University will host the Mental Health Awareness Information Fair from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m., Thursday, at the Ehringer Annex Lawn. Faculty, staff and the community are invited to learn more about taking care of their mental health.
- West Chester University will celebrates Homecoming Weekend 2013 Friday through Saturday. Homecoming events will include Friday Night Kickoff Party, Homecoming Parade, Family Fun Zone, Alumni Reunions, WCU vs East

Stroudsburg Homecoming Football Game and more! Many events are free. Click here or Homecoming 2013 details.

Bloomsburg University of Pennsylvania

- LGBT activist Candace Gingrich-Jones will present a lecture, The Accidental Activist: A Personal and Political Journey, at 7 p.m., today, in Bloomsburg University of Pennsylvania's Kehr Union Ballroom. The presentation is free. Gingrich-Jones, half-sister of former Speaker of the House Newt Gingrich, speaks nationwide to promote the importance of coming out, the duty to vote and the power of conversations to change minds. For more information, contact Madelyn Rodriguez, director of Multicultural Affairs, at mrodrig2@bloomu.edu or 570-389-4510. Other BU events during Pride Week, hosted by the Gender and Sexuality Alliance and the LGBTQ Faculty Commission, include Pride, Poetry, and Music Open Mic from 6 to 8 p.m. Thursday, at Fog and Flame Coffee Bar, 34 E. Main St., Bloomsburg.
- A reception for artist Sage Dawson will be held from 2:30 to 5:30 p.m., Thursday, in Bloomsburg University's Haas Gallery of Art. Dawson will lecture at 3 p.m. For information, contact Scott Roper, sroper@bloomu.edu.
- The gender studies minor film series will continue with a presentation of the French film Il y a longtemps que je t'aime (I've Loved You So Long) at 7 p.m., Thursday, in Bloomsburg University's McCormick Center for Human Services, room 2303. The event is free.
- Motown and More, featuring Souled Out, will take the stage at 8 p.m., Friday, in Bloomsburg University's Haas Center for the Arts, Mitrani Hall as part of the Celebrity Artist Series. Reproducing the classic sounds of the '70s soul era, the group will perform hits from Motown and soul legends including Earth, Wind & Fire, the Commodores and Tower of Power. Tickets are $35 for regular admission and $17 for BU students and children. For tickets or more information, visit www.bloomu.edu/CAS or call the box office at (570) 389-4409.
- Bloomsburg University will celebrate Homecoming on Saturday. Events will include an 11 a.m. parade from Main Street to Market Street to Town Park, a 1 p.m. field hockey matchup versus Kutztown, 3:30 p.m. football game versus Millersville, and a 5 p.m. women's soccer game and 7:30 p.m. men's soccer game, both against California University. An alumni tent party will begin at noon in front of the Fenstermaker Alumni House. This year's homecoming theme is Nashville Music City, U.S.A.
- High school students who are considering a major in the visual or performing arts will visit Bloomsburg University for Visual and Performing Arts Major Day tomorrow. Visiting students will receive information from admissions and the chair of the music, theatre and dance department; shadow BU students; and participate in ensemble classes. A spring semester Visual and Performing Arts Major Day will take place on Feb. 11, 2014. Call (570) 389-4284 for information or to reserve a spot.

California University of Pennsylvania

- California University of Pennsylvania will kick off homecoming week today with Cal U Hockey Night at Rostraver Ice Garden in Belle Vernon. Pittsburgh Penguins players and the team's Iceburgh will participate in the event. The Cal U women's ice hockey team will play Slippery Rock at 4:30 p.m. Penguins players will appear at a public skating session from 6:30 to 7:45 p.m. and Cal U's men's team will play Penn State-Altoona at 8:45 p.m. Admission is free for Cal U students with a valid CalCard; non-students pay $3.
- The public is invited to attend a California University Homecoming spirit rally from 4 to 8 p.m., Wednesday, on Third Street in front of the Natali Student Center and in the Convocation Center courtyard. The event will include fireworks and the announcement of the 2013 Homecoming Court.
- Six Vulcan athletic standouts will be inducted into the California University Athletic Hall of Fame at 5:30 p.m., Friday, in the Performance Center inside the Natali Student Center. Reservations are required for the 19th annual Hall of Fame banquet. For details, contact Montean Dean in the Alumni Relations Office at (724) 938-4418 or dean@calu.edu.
- Alumni, current students and friends of California University will celebrate homecoming on Saturday. Highlights will include a parade at noon, followed by a Vulcan Huddle tailgate at Roadman Park. The football game against Clarion will begin at 3:30 p.m. at Adamson Stadium's Hepner-Bailey Field. For a complete Homecoming week schedule, visit www.calu.edu.
- Rising Nashville star Brynn Marie, a former California University student, will perform at 8 p.m., Saturday, in Steele Hall Mainstage Theatre. A native of Carmichaels, Pa., Marie recently returned from promoting her debut single, "Bandaid on a Bullet Hole," and touring with singer Pat Benatar. For a free admission pass, visit www.calu.edu.

Cheyney University of Pennsylvania

- Cheyney University's Fall 2013 Career Fair will be held from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m., Wednesday, in the Marcus Foster Alumni Student Center.
- William Parrish, CEO of Noble Strategy, LLC, will discuss "Making Bold Moves" at 6 p.m., Wednesday, in the New Residence Hall UPS Conference Room. The program is part of Cheyney University's Entrepreneurial Lecture Series.

Clarion University of Pennsylvania

- Clarion University Theatre will present "The Women of Lockerbie" at 8 p.m., Wednesday through Saturday, and at 2 p.m., Sunday, in Marwick-Boyd Little Theatre. The play follows a New Jersey mother who is looking for her son's remains, which were lost in the Pan Am 103 crash. In Scotland, she meets the Women of Lockerbie, who are fighting the U.S. government to obtain the victims' clothing, which they want to wash and return to the victims' families.
- Carolee K. Michener and Clarence (Bud) Pelaghi will present their "Personal Recollections of the Pennsylvania Oil Region" from 6 to 8 p.m., Thursday, in the auditorium of Robert W. Rhoades Center, Venango College of Clarion University, Oil City. The presentation is free.

- Venango College of Clarion University will present “Rust and Bone” (R) at 7 p.m., Saturday, in Robert W. Rhoades Center. The movie, part of Venango’s Independent Film Series, is free.
- Clarion University Small Business Development Center and U.S. Commercial Service, in partnership with Congressman Glenn “GT” Thompson, will host a seminar, “Emerging Export Markets for the Coal Mining Industry,” from 9 a.m. to noon, Saturday, in the Small Business Development Center. Cost is $15, including coffee and a light breakfast. To register visit www.clarion.edu/sbdc/training, email sbdc@clarion.edu or call the SBDC at (814) 393-2060.

East Stroudsburg University of Pennsylvania

- Purple Heart recipient Bryan Adams will speak at East Stroudsburg University at 7 p.m., tomorrow, in the Keystone Room. Adams, who battled Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder, will share his emotional story, which is filled with personal and candid moments as he transitioned from life as a soldier in a combat setting to civilian life as a college student. The event is free.
- Aneesah Smith and students from West Chester University will visit East Stroudsburg University and share their experiences being young, black and gay at a predominately white institution while dissecting the new buzz word, intersectionality, from 7 to 10 p.m., tomorrow, in Lower Dansbury. The event is free.
- The film ¿Y Tu Abuela, Donde Está? (And Your Grandmother, Where is She?) will be shown and an honor ceremony will take place at 6 p.m., Wednesday, in the Keystone Room at East Stroudsburg University. The ceremony will provide an opportunity for students to honor someone of Latino descent in the community or a family member who has impacted and inspired their lives in some way. The event is free.
- For the first time in the history of East Stroudsburg University, the Madelon Powers Gallery will host the First National Juried Exhibit titled Marks, from 11 a.m. to 7 p.m., Wednesday, in the Fine & Performing Arts Center. A reception will include a gallery talk and awards presentation from 4 to 6 p.m. at the same location. The exhibit will showcase new and current trends in contemporary drawing processes and techniques. The event is free.
- As part of the new One Book, One Campus Wes Moore public readings at East Stroudsburg University, Dr. Paul Creamer, associate professor of modern languages, will conduct a special lecture, at 7 p.m., Wednesday, in Kurtz Lecture Hall in the Moore Biology Building. The event is free.
- East Stroudsburg University will showcase the film titled Aquí y Allá (Here and There) from 7 to 9 p.m., Thursday, in Beers Lecture Hall. The film captures the complex homecoming of a loving father, Pedro, who returns home to a small mountain village in Guerrero, Mexico, after years of working in New York. The event is free.
- East Stroudsburg University will present a Latin Explosion party from 10 p.m. to 2 a.m., Friday, in Lower Dansbury. The event is free.

Edinboro University of Pennsylvania

- The film "Call Me Crazy" will be shown at 3 and 5 p.m., today, in the Frank G. Pogue Student Center Scot Cinema at Edinboro University. The screening is being held in observance of Mental Illness Awareness Week, and admission is free.
- Edinboro University's ongoing Archaeology Month program will include a Ground-Penetrating Radar Demonstration at 10:30 a.m., tomorrow, and a Brain-Tanning Demonstration at 7 p.m. tomorrow. Brain-tanning uses animal brains to treat animal skins; the demonstration will be gross, smelly and an absolutely unique experience. Participants in both programs should meet in Hendricks Hall Room 127 to go to an off-campus location Admission is free.
- A "Legends of the Night Sky" Planetarium program will be presented at 7 p.m., tomorrow, in the Edinboro University Planetarium, Cooper Hall. Telescopic viewing will follow, weather-permitting, and a tour of the natural history museum will be offered. Admission is free, but reservations are required. Call (814) 732-2493 or use the form at www.edinboro.edu/planetarium.
- The Edinboro University Performing Arts Series will present Martha Redbone at 7:30 p.m., Wednesday, in Louis C. Cole Auditorium – Memorial Hall. Tickets are free for Edinboro University students; $5 for faculty, staff, and President's Pass holders; and $10 for general admission. Tickets are available at the SGA Convenience Store, at the door, or online at www.edinborotickets.com.
- Edinboro University's Friends of Music Concert by the Erie Philharmonic will begin at 7:30 p.m., Thursday, in Louis C. Cole Auditorium – Memorial Hall. The pops program featuring Edinboro University music faculty member Dr. Patrick Jones as saxophone soloist will be the first concert in the Erie Philharmonic's 100th anniversary season. Admission is free.
- The film double bill "Rubber" and "Wrong" will be shown at 8:30 p.m., Thursday, in the Frank G. Pogue Student Center Scot Cinema at Edinboro University. Admission to the Edinboro Film Series presentation is free for Edinboro students and $2 general admission. For more information on the Edinboro film Series, visit <http://aux.edinboro.edu/filmseries/>.