

Attention ESU faculty and staff:
The ESU Music Department urgently needs host families!

The annual Pennsylvania Collegiate Choral Festival will be held at ESU on Thursday, February 13 through Saturday, February 15. Dr. James Maroney, ESU Director of Choral and Vocal Activities and President, Lehigh Valley Chapter of the National Association of Teachers of Singing, is urgently looking for those who can help in hosting the 80 plus attending student singers from other Pennsylvania colleges during the festival.

Responsibilities as host are pretty simple and not time-consuming: the students would require lodging after 9 p.m. Thursday and Friday nights, Feb. 13 and 14, as well as breakfast the following morning. They would need to be brought back to ESU by 8:45 a.m. on Friday and Saturday.

You may host just one student, or as many as you can. All efforts are greatly appreciated!

The PA Collegiate Choral Festival is held at a different Pennsylvania college each year, providing students the opportunity to rehearse with a renowned guest conductor, culminating in an impressive concert performance on Saturday afternoon. Each hosting college relies on the generosity of its community members to make this wonderful opportunity affordable to the students.

Please contact Dr. Maroney at jmaroney@esu.edu if you can help.
