

To the ESU Campus:

As a part of the strategic planning process, the Steering Committee would like to be certain that everyone within our campus community has a voice to share their valued views and suggestions regarding the future of East Stroudsburg University. It is critical that we are all committed to the same future for ESU and move forward with a sense of pride and enthusiasm about where the strategic plan is directing us.

The first set of discussions which took place January 7, 8, and 9 were greatly attended and the discussions were encouraging. These discussions will continue January 29, 30, and 31, and are open to all staff, faculty, and students. To register call Marcy Cetnar at 570-422-3546 or email mcetnar@esu.edu with two time preferences. You will be scheduled and notified of a location for your participation in one of the discussion groups. Stand up and be heard! Please use your participation to voice your thoughts on the strategic plan and provide your input for the future of ESU. While your participation is critical, we ask that you work with your supervisor and colleagues to be sure offices and jobs are covered during this process.

The times for round table discussions on each of the dates mentioned will be:

- 8:00-9:30 a.m.
- 10:00-11:30 a.m.
- 12:00-1:30 p.m.
- 2:00-3:30 p.m.
- 4:00-5:30 p.m.
- January 30, we will also have a session from 6:00-7:30 p.m.

Please call or email Marcy Cetnar as soon as possible with your preferred dates and times. A final schedule will be shared with you along with the latest draft of the strategic plan for your review prior to meeting.

Thank you for your willingness to participate in this very important process.
