

Women's History Month 2016

East Stroudsburg University

WHEN SEX & MUSIC COLLIDE DREAMWORLDS 3

3 MARCH

2pm Beers Lecture Hall

Sex, desire, and power are prevalent in music videos through song lyrics as well as visual displays of women and men. Join us for a film viewing of Dreamworlds 3, a film that examines the images of masculinity and femininity as displayed in music. A short discussion will follow the film. Sponsored by Women's Studies.

"SHE KICKS LIKE A GIRL" Conversation about Women and Sports

24 MARCH

2pm Beers Lecture Hall

What does it mean to say "She Kicks Like a Girl?" Join Dr. Paula Parker, Chairperson of Sport Management, and others across campus for a conversation about women and sport as we dive into the questions of gender, sport, and the use of language as a means of separation between male and female athletes. Video clips and a short film will be utilized to aid in the discussion. Sponsored by Women's Studies.

VAGINA MONOLOGUES

25 & 26 MARCH

8pm Abeloff 2pm Abeloff

$5.00, all proceeds to benefit Women's Resources of Monroe County
Sponsored by The Feminist Alliance

Warrior Women Empowering Ourselves to Speak-Up!

30 MARCH

4pm Stroud 113 Lecture Hall

This panel of distinguished women will discuss pertinent issues related to gender equality, reproductive justice, women leaders and the political process, economic justice, and responding to the call to be an activist.

HIP HOP AND THE IMAGE OF WOMEN

2 MARCH

7pm Women's Center

This program will explore the image of women in hip hop and rap music. It will look at the images of women in video's and the corresponding musical lyrics. Central to the discussion will be a focus on misogyny and the exploitation, objectification and violence against women.

IRON JAWED ANGELS: The fight to win the vote for women

16 MARCH

2pm Beers Lecture Hall

Join us for a film viewing of HBO's Iron Jawed Angels. The film details the struggle of women working to win the right to vote. A short discussion will follow the film. Co-sponsored by Women's Studies and the Monroe County Commission for Women.

EMPOWERING WOMEN Effective communications in the workplace

24 MARCH

6:30-8pm Sci Tech Auditorium

Co-sponsored with Career Development Center
Speaker: Sharone Glasco, Director,
Workforce Development

Dealing with the "F" Word: A book discussion of We Should All Be Feminists by Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie

28 MARCH

4pm Women's Center

Students who are interested in participating in the book discussion can pick up a free copy of the book from Dr. Andi McClanahan, Coordinator of Women's Studies, in Monroe Hall Room 301 beginning the first week of March. Please note: books are limited so pick up your copy early! Books are also available at the University Bookstore for purchase or can be downloaded as an e-book on various platforms.

HONEST CONVERSATIONS Tell us how you Really feel

31 MARCH

7pm Women's Center

Co-sponsored by OMA