Funding Guidelines for F-1 and J-1 Students

The Office of International Programs is required to verify that you have the ability to pay for the first full year of your academic program including tuition, fees, and living expenses, etc. You also must prove you have the additional funds required for family members to be issued dependent visa documents.

Proof of Funding:

- Must be in English or with an official translation (cannot be self-translated)
- Must reflect liquid assets - no real estate, stocks/bonds, or salary to be earned
- Must identify the source, funding amount, type of currency, and dates of coverage
- Must be current

Examples of Acceptable Proof of Funds:

- Personal (checking/savings account statements)
- Family funds (checking/savings account statements)
- Scholarship award letters from home university
- Scholarship/Fellowship/Assistantship letters from East Stroudsburg University
- Government grant/award letters
- Employer sponsorship letter

We will not accept tax returns, pay slips, real estate holdings, personal property or stock holdings as proof of financial support.

Notes about Funding sources:

If sponsored by personal or family funds, you will need to provide bank statements or bank letters showing personal or family member checking/saving funds. Be sure the family member's name is on the bank statement or letter.

ADDITIONAL SUGGESTIONS: You should obtain at least 2 original copies of your proof of funding. You will need to show original proof of funding at the U.S. Embassy or Consulate when applying for the visa stamp. You may also be asked to show original proof of funding when you enter the U.S. (at the port of entry).
