for

THE EAST STROUDSBURG UNIVERSITY
DISTINGUISHED PROFESSOR AWARD
-- Year 2019--

CEREMONY - The award winner(s) will be honored at first University-Wide Meeting in September 2019

AWARD CRITERIA - The Distinguished Professor Award is the highest honor for ESU Faculty to receive. The Award is given for outstanding contributions in teaching, research/scholarship/creative activities, and service. Candidates must have a record of outstanding teaching, quality research/scholarly/creative activities, and university service related to one's discipline or profession. Candidates should continually have demonstrated engagement in research/scholarly/creative activities that advance the faculty member's discipline or profession or the teaching of his/her discipline or profession. Only faculty who hold a doctorate or other terminal degree, have earned the rank of full professor, have sustained excellence as a professor, and have been full-time faculty at ESU for at least ten years can be nominated or considered for the award.

NOMINATION PROCESS - Nominating letters can be submitted by any member of the University Community (faculty, Administrators, students, or staff).

Letters should be 1-3 pages in length and should specify the nominee's outstanding contributions in all of the following categories – Teaching, Scholarship, Creative Endeavor, Service to the University and/or Community.

Self-nominations are not acceptable.

Nominating letters are due no later than October 1, 2018; letters can be submitted anytime between July and October 1, 2018.

Submit letter in a sealed envelope to

Distinguished Professor Award Committee
c/o Toni Heller
