

Graduate College Core Student Learning Themes

Upon successful completion of an ESU graduate program, within their discipline, students will:

Mastery of Specific Discipline

- ▶ Demonstrate advanced knowledge and skills.
- ▶ Apply knowledge and skills in academic, professional, or research settings.

Professional and Ethical Behavior

- ▶ Demonstrate the standards of ethics and conduct in their profession.
- ▶ Comprehend the impact of their professional actions upon themselves and others while working diligently to achieve positive outcomes.

Research

- ▶ Be proficient in performing and/or understanding the research process.
- ▶ Read, analyze and write consistently within the standards of their field.

Communication

- ▶ Communicate effectively in a variety of modes as required in a discipline specific professional setting.

Critical, Innovative, and Creative Thinking

- ▶ Identify and analyze critical issues for holistic understanding.
- ▶ Challenge and evaluate information.
- ▶ Synthesize and integrate knowledge.
- ▶ Formulate new ideas.

Approved by Graduate Advisory Council, April 20, 2010