

The Week Ahead...

Good morning. The Week Ahead includes a listing of events and activities scheduled across PASSHE to which the public is invited. The listing is distributed every Monday during the academic year.

Clarion University of Pennsylvania

- Euphoniumist Dr. Neal Corwell will perform at 11 a.m. and 12:30 p.m., tomorrow, in Clarion University's Marwick-Boyd Auditorium. Corwell is internationally known as one of the premier euphoniumists in the world. He is the euphonium soloist for The United States Army Band, "Pershing's Own," in Washington, D.C.
- Clarion University will join the Clarion VFW for a community remembrance of Sept. 11. The event will honor the men and women who serve our communities in police forces, fire departments and emergency response teams. Anyone wanting to participate should meet at 5:30 p.m., Wednesday, outside of Hart Chapel for a processional to the ceremony at Memorial Park.

East Stroudsburg University of Pennsylvania

- East Stroudsburg University will hold two lectures/roundtable discussions from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m., Wednesday, at the Lehigh Valley Center. Political science professor Dr. Sam Quainoo will present his lecture titled "The Other Side of the Immigration Debate: Developing Countries and the Brain-Drain Problem." Assistant professor of athletic training Dr. Kelly Harrison will speak on "A Discussion of Complementary Therapies in Rehabilitation." The public is invited at no cost.
- East Stroudsburg University will celebrate Latino Heritage Month with a presentation on women in education from 2 to 4 p.m., Saturday, in Lower Dansbury Lounge. This will be an interactive round table discussion with successful Latina women highlighting the rewards and struggles of working in the competitive field of education. The public is invited at no cost.

Edinboro University of Pennsylvania

- Paleontologist Dr. Dale Tshudy of the Edinboro University Geosciences Department will speak about his research collaboration with marine biologists in Taiwan, which focuses on the evolution of deep-sea lobsters, at 9:30 a.m., Thursday, in the Al Stone Inter-Generational Center in the basement of the Diebold Center for Performing Arts. Admission is free.
- The Edinboro Film Series will present "This Is Spinal Tap" at 8:30 p.m., Thursday, in Edinboro University's Frank G. Pogue Student Center Scot Cinema. Admission is free for Edinboro students, $2 for all others.
- The Edinboro University Programming Board will present comedian Tracey Ashley at 8 p.m., Sunday, in the Frank G. Pogue Student Center Scot Cinema. Admission is free.

Indiana University of Pennsylvania

- IUP's Lively Arts will present guest artist Neal Corwell, euphoniumist with the U.S. Army Band, at 8 p.m., today, in Gorell Recital Hall, Sutton Hall. Admission is free.
- The exhibit We Two Founts: Larson and Mitchell will run through Oct. 10 in IUP's Kipp Gallery, Sprowls Hall. Gallery hours are from noon to 4 p.m., Tuesdays through Fridays. An artist talk will be held at 5 p.m., Thursday, in Sprowls 118A, and a reception will follow. Admission is free.
- IUP's Council of Trustees will meet at 5 p.m., Thursday, in Gorell Recital Hall, Sutton Hall. The meeting is open to the public.

Mansfield University of Pennsylvania

- Comedian Mal Hall will perform at 9 .m., Thursday, at The Hut at Mansfield University. The concert is free and open to the public.
- Arrival from Sweden will bring the music of ABBA to Mansfield University's Straughn Hall at 8 p.m., Friday. Doors will open at 7 p.m. Concert tickets are $15 for the general public, $10 for MU employees and $5 for MU student family members. MU students are free with ID.
- Mansfield University will host a full day of events and activities on Saturday, culminating with the christening of the new lights and artificial turf at Karl Van Norman Field as the Mountaineers play their first night home football game since 1892. For more information and the schedule of events, go to <http://lightupmansfield.com>.
- Todd Ranney and Catherine Robison will present "It's de-Lovely," a faculty and guest voice recital, at 2:30 p.m., Sunday, in Steadman Theatre at Mansfield University. The recital is free and open to the public.

Millersville University of Pennsylvania

- Millersville University will present artist Sandow Birk at 12:15 p.m., tomorrow, in The Winter Center of Visual Arts gallery to discuss his artwork currently on view. This event is open to the public.
- Millersville University will present the biology colloquium lecture: "Debunking Myths About Canine Social Behavior" by Dr. Carlo Siracusa Wednesday in room 210 in Caputo at Millersville University. This event is open to the public.
- The Ware Center will present "Inside the Minds: Lancaster's Leaders Discussion Panel," which will be held at 6 p.m., Wednesday, at The Ware Center. This event is open to the public.
- The Ware Center will present "Music in the Rounds: Brass Night" at 7:30 p.m., Friday. This event is open to the public.

Shippensburg University of Pennsylvania

- Shippensburg University's student-run Activities Program Board (APB) will present "Gone Too Soon" at 9 p.m., today, in the multi-purpose room of the Ceddia Union Building. Speaker Kevin Smith will discuss suicide prevention. Admission is free.

- The departments of History and Philosophy and Modern Languages at Shippensburg University will sponsor a talk by Dr. Geoffrey Megargee, senior applied research scholar at the Center for Advanced Holocaust Studies, United States Holocaust Memorial Museum, at 2 p.m., Wednesday, in Grove Hall Forum. His talk, "Aspects of Nazism: The Role of the German Military and New Research on the Camps," is free.
- APB will present a musical performance by Nelly's Echo at noon, Thursday, in the Ship Deck Amphitheater outside the Ceddia Union Building. Admission is free.
- APB will present comedian Michael Harrison at 10 p.m., Friday, in Ceddia Union Building 023 as part of the Red Zone Programming Series. Admission is free.

Slippery Rock University of Pennsylvania

- Visiting artists Valerie Lueth and Paul Roden will present a woodcut printmaking techniques demonstration at 12:30 p.m., tomorrow, in Slippery Rock University's Art Building.
- Slippery Rock University President Cheryl Norton will present the annual State of the University Address at 12:30 p.m., Thursday, in the Smith Student Center Ballroom.
- Slippery Rock University will kick off "Family and Friends Weekend" Friday. A "Foam Dance Party" is planned for opening night. In addition to Saturday activities on campus, the Slippery Rock community will host its annual "VillageFest" from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. SRU's football team will take on Shippensburg at 6 p.m. in Mihalik-Thompson Stadium.

West Chester University of Pennsylvania

- West Chester University's Permanent Art Collection is on display during gallery hours now through Sept. 28 in the Knauer Gallery. The exhibit is free and open to the public.
- WCU's School of Music will host a Faculty Recital featuring Jonathan Fowler on the tuba at 7:30 p.m., today, in the Philips Autograph Library. This event is free and open to the public.
- West Chester University will kick off "The Big Read" at 9 a.m., Wednesday, in the Academic Quad. The public is invited to more than 20 Chester County events this fall highlighting The Things They Carried, the focal book of the West Chester Big Read. Click for a full list of events.
- More than 60 local non-profits and governmental agencies will be in attendance at West Chester University's Volunteer Fair from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m., Wednesday, in Sykes Student Union Ballrooms..
- The 113th Anniversary International Exhibition of Works on Paper exhibit featuring works from The Philadelphia Water Color Society is open to the public Wednesday through October 26 in The New Gallery at West Chester University.
- WCU Live will host a performance by The Beegie Adair Trio at 7:30 p.m., Wednesday, in the Madeleine Wing Adler Theatre. Adair's recordings are among the biggest sellers in the jazz world. General Admission: Adults $20 - Children/Seniors/Students $15.

- WCU Live will present Smokey Joe's Café, Grammy Award winner for Best Musical, at 7:30 p.m., Friday, and at 2 p.m. and 7:30 p.m., Saturday. General Admission: Adults $20 - Children/Seniors/Students $15.

Bloomsburg University of Pennsylvania

- Bloomsburg University's Council of Trustees will meet at 11 a.m., Wednesday, in Monty's Assembly Room.
- The work of artist Sage Dawson will be featured from tomorrow through Oct. 11 in the Haas Gallery at Bloomsburg University. In the exhibit, Home Sweet Ruin, Dawson examines the history of cartographic rendering: mapping to investigate sublimity, the distinct identities of spaces, and contemporary perspectives of nostalgia. The gallery is open free of charge from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. weekdays and from noon to 2 p.m. Saturdays. For information, contact Scott Roper, sroper@bloomu.edu.
- The Gender Studies minor at Bloomsburg University is sponsoring a series of six French films. The first film, La Vie en rose, will be shown at 7 p.m., Thursday, in McCormick Center, room 2303. The film depicts the life of the French singer Edith Piaf, who lived from 1915 to 1963. This film series is free and open to the public.
- Open Mic Night, featuring a performance by host Griffen Alexander, will be held at 5 p.m., Thursday, in Bloomsburg University's Scranton Commons Amphitheater. The rain location is the Kehr Union Fireside Lounge. Each act in this "unplugged" event must include at least one BU student, faculty or staff member. Open Mic Night is open to the public free of charge and sponsored by BU's Program Board and Community Government Association. For information, call (570) 389-4346.
- Visiting faculty from the University of Buea, Cameroon, Martina Zenking and Ekoka Molino, will present the lecture, Bilingual Instruction and Multicultural Education in Cameroon, at 1 p.m., today, in Bloomsburg University's McCormick Center, room 2303. The lecture, sponsored by BU's College of Education, is open to the public free of charge.
- Justine Ayuk, a lecturer in the gender studies department at the University of Buea, Cameroon, will talk about Gender and Development in Cameroon at 6 p.m., Wednesday, in Bloomsburg University's Andruss Library, Schweiker Room. Ayuk is one of four University of Buea faculty visiting BU during September. The lecture, open to the public free of charge, is sponsored by BU's College of Liberal Arts and Gender Studies minor.
- Bloomsburg University's Quest Program will offer a kayak pool session at 9 p.m. tomorrow, at Nelson Field House. The session is free for BU students and $5 for the public. See www.buquest.org for more information.
- The weekly farmers market will return to Bloomsburg University from 8:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m., Friday. Don Hess of Dancing Hen Farm will present a cooking demonstration at 11 a.m. and Dr. John Jaramillo of Nut Creek Farm will lecture at noon. Aramark will provide free coffee. The farmers market will be set up near the rear entrance to Warren Student Services Center each Friday through October.

California University of Pennsylvania

- California University's student chapter of The Wildlife Society will present its eighth annual Family Field Day from 12:30 to 4 p.m., Saturday, in and around the Frich Hall biology building. The public may attend this free event conducted in cooperation with the Pennsylvania Game Commission. Held rain or shine, the field day includes an archery demonstration, a fly-tying demonstration and casting contest, a conservation class with live animals, a display of animal tracks, and information about bluebird box construction. This also is Family Day at Cal U, and a full lineup of activities for students and their families is planned. Among them is the home football game vs. Kutztown University at 3:30 p.m.