The East Stroudsburg University Foundation is pleased to announce the availability of three specific scholarships for the current semester and academic year.

- The BPOE Elks #319 Annual Scholarship is available for the 2013-2014 academic year in the amount of $1,000.
- The Housing Authority of Monroe County Annual Scholarship is available for the 2013-2014 academic year in the amount of $1,000.
- The Tannersville Lions Annual Scholarship is available for the fall 2013 semester in the amount of $500.

The criteria, which are very specific for these scholarships, can be found on the ESU Foundation website at www.esufoundation.org/otherscholarships. Students who meet the criteria may apply by printing the application found next to the specific scholarship on the website listed. Completed applications are due to the ESU Student Enrollment Center no later than Friday, November 22, 2013.

Further information about these scholarships can be obtained from Laurie Schaller, scholarship coordinator for the ESU Foundation, at lschaller@esufoundation.org, or by telephone at (570) 422-3658.
