

East Stroudsburg University of Pennsylvania
Office of Extended Learning
Fall 2012

National Board Teacher Certification Support
Credit Coursework Registration Information

Section (CRN #)	Course	Title	Description
92403	PSED 570	Field Assessment of Mastery in Education	This course is a performance based assessment of proficiency in education in which observations are made of specified professional skills in actual classroom situations. It includes interaction, analysis, videotaping and conferences.

Instructors: National Board credit coursework through ESU is co-taught by Dr. Douglas Lare (dlare@esu.edu) and Steve Schreiner (schreiners45@gmail.com)

TUITION & FEES 3 Credit Graduate Course (Tuition subject to change without notice. See www.esu.edu for details.)

Extending Learning Graduate Courses (excluding Monroe County):

	Tuition	General Fee	TECH Fee	Total
PA Resident	$ 1287.00	$140.76	$63.00	$1490.76
Non PA Resident	$ 1932.00	$140.76	$93.00	$2165.76

REGISTRATION PROCEDURES FOR CANDIDATES WISHING TO RECEIVE GRADUATE CREDIT:

Please note that if you wish to receive graduate credit for ESU coursework, you must register with ESU by October 22, 2012.

1. If you have never taken an ESU course before, please complete a "Special Status Application" and return to the Graduate College (www.esu.edu/graduate).
2. If you have recently taken an ESU course and are still considered an active student, you may you may register online through your ESU portal at <https://myesu.esu.edu> using the Section (CRN) numbers above. If you are unsure of your student status, or have trouble registering, please contact Kevin Quintero, Graduate Admission Coordinator at 570-422-3890.
3. If you wish to defer your tuition until you receive a grade, please review and submit the "Tuition Reimbursement" request.
4. Prior to registering, please contact Steve Schreiner (schreiners45@gmail.com), ESU Center for Teaching Excellence Coordinator to let him know you will be taking the courses for credit. He will then give you details about meeting times and locations. Courses are held at a variety of locations in eastern Pennsylvania (including Easton, Bethlehem, Parkland, Central Bucks, Pennsbury, Pocono Mountain, East Stroudsburg, Northumberland and Western Wayne).
5. If you do NOT wish to receive graduate credit, please contact Steve Schreiner. You do not need to submit any paperwork to ESU.

Need more information about off-campus programs? Contact the Office of Extended Learning at 570-422-2872 or see our website for updated information: www.esu.edu/extendedlearning