Review Period

Verification Guidelines

The U.S. Department of Education may flag a student for Unusual Enrollment History Review because they received Federal funds at multiple education institutions during the review period. This flag requires the Office of Financial Aid (OFA) to review the student's enrollment history during the review period. Submission of this form does not guarantee that the student will be eligible for Title IV financial aid.

1. List below all institutions (if any) you attended during the review period and did not earn any academic credit during one or more semesters in which you received federal student aid. Also list the last semester you attended each of these institutions.

2. For each institution listed above, attach a personal statement explaining the reasons and unusual circumstances for your failure to earn any academic credit during semesters in which you received federal student aid. Also attach any supporting documentation. All documentation submitted is confidential. Some examples of unusual circumstances are illness, injury, disability or death in your family.
3. Attach a copy of your latest transcript from each post-secondary school attended in the last 4 years.

Student Certification:

I certify that all information is accurate and true to the best of my knowledge, that all copies are unaltered and I have appropriately obtained all supporting documentation. I have attached my personal statements explaining my circumstances at each of the institutions listed above.
