This year we celebrate transformation, transformation is the act of change or the state of being transformed. Whether you are transitioning from high school/associate degree to university, seniors graduating and entering the industry, and/or alumni taking on a different career opportunity; we are here for you.

Within the HRTM department, we offer quality education, professional development, certification, career exploration, and strong networking to help you succeed, transform, and achieve your full potential. We are excited about our upcoming semester and gearing up for another exciting and productive year. I encourage you to join the Hospitality and Tourism Club as we frequently invite industry guest speakers, career development, and property tours to find your interest and explore different options and opportunities in the hospitality, recreation, and tourism industry.

In Hospitality,
Dr. Chiang
I. New Credly Badges Unlock Opportunities

- Since 2021, the HRTM department has launched the digital credential platform leader Credly. It is best known for verifying skills and knowledge earned through specific coursework. Credly makes talent more visible and opportunity more accessible for those who earn the proficiencies. After completing specific curricula in areas of expertise, electronic badges will be awarded endorsing knowledge gained in these specific areas. Badge earners may share it on their resumes, job applications, and job posting sites to gain a competitive advantage.
- New badges added in 2023:
  - Contemporary Legal and Ethical Aspects of Hospitality & Tourism Management
  - Recreation Organizations
  - U.S. National Park
  - Information Systems for Hospitality Management
  - Beverage Management
  - Recreation Services Internship
  - Hospitality and Tourism Internship
Beverage management is a vital part of the hospitality industry. Currently, there are several food-related courses offered but ESU offers few beverage courses. To address this gap, the department began offering an advanced class on wine. By offering a more introductory course, students could begin to learn about beverage management earlier in their studies. They could also explore other aspects of beverage service such as coffee & tea, that are equally relevant to hospitality but may not require the depth of a full semester.

This course introduces students to the major alcoholic and non-alcoholic beverage categories. Topics explored include coffee, tea, beer/wine/spirits, mixology, cider, and other related adult beverages. Students gain a broad understanding of production methods, regional influences, and service procedures.

Upon completion of the course, students will be able to:

- Explain the coffee roasting & brewing process and explain broad sensory differences between growing regions.
- Identify and explain the aroma & flavor profiles of various types of tea.
- Explain the production processes for beer, wine, sake, spirits, and hard cider.
- Implement ethical and safe alcohol tasting, handling, storage, sales, and services and define and apply common terms used in the wine and beverage industry.
The primary purpose for establishing the Hospitality and Tourism Institute is to provide leading educational, career, and research development programs and activities that are committed to fostering lifelong learning and career advancement within the hospitality community.

The hospitality, recreation, and tourism management department has been engaging with the community since the Pandemic and has heavily engaged with the community in rebranding hospitality in our local community. There is a growing demand for education workshops, community partnership programs, and continuing education programs from our local community. In addition, the institute will also help rebrand hospitality, recreation, and tourism management in our local community.

The education goal of the institute include:

a) To offer lifelong learning opportunities for hospitality professionals with an industry-accredited program.

b) To provide education and professional development workshops at industry partner properties.

c) To promote instructional resources that are accessible for stakeholders within the hospitality and tourism community.

d) Provide internship opportunities for regional, state, and international students.
The College of Business and Management have renewed data analytics workshops with Stroudsburg Area School District for the third year and will be providing cutting edge data analytics programs to support Stroudsburg High and Junior High School curriculum. This would be the third year the program was led by Hospitality, Recreation, and Tourism Management faculty. These workshops will benefit business, social science, and math studies.

This year we will be integrating social media analytics, travel and tourism, cost control and financial management curriculum into the workshop sessions.

This program is led by Dr. Ju, Dr. Meitner, and Dr. Chiang of the Hospitality, Recreation, and Tourism Management Department.
P&J's Restaurant has partnered with the Arts + Media + Design department in the recreation of the iconic P&J mural that was in the old P&J Restaurant. The original concept was using the iconic P&J stained glass from the original restaurant. Prof. Cindy Vojnovic, Arts and Design Professor was the leading professor overseeing the project. Alexandria Gonzalez, an Arts and Design major came up with the concept and executed the project. A formal induction celebration will be held on 9/21 in the P&J's Restaurant.

Students in our event planning courses have been exposed to necessary event planning skills such as: designing the meeting experience, strategic planning, site, and venue selection, negotiating contracts, budgeting, and marketing the meeting. Students have also helped plan departmental and campus-wide events as well as completed professional events and meeting planning internships in resort and convention centers.

The RECR 350 Special Event and Programming students partnered with The Arts + Media + Design and Health Sciences Department to host and execute the Empty Bowls fundraising event at P&J’s Restaurant.

Students raised nearly $3000 for the Warrior Food Pantry! The Pantry provides food and other necessities to ESU students who do not have enough money to buy nutritious food.

Guests received a handmade pottery bowl made by Professor Wes Brown, his students, and community volunteers. They also enjoyed a delicious bowl of soup with dinner rolls prepared by Dr. Chuck Meitner and Special Event and Programming students.
VII. HRTM Event Planning Activities

Students in HRTM 436 Meeting & Convention Management planned the 2022 Alumni and Industry Professional Networking Event. The event invited past to recent alumni and graduates to share their professional careers and providing career guidance and opportunities for our students.

Attended speakers:

Hospitality majors in our meeting and event planning course hosted the College of Business Management (COBM) Annual Minority Scholarship Golf Fundraising Event at Skytop Lodge.

This event benefits first-year minority students in COBM, after an afternoon of golf, a reception, dinner, auction, and awards ceremony were followed.

Together we raised over $30,000 USD from Sponsorships to Golf registrations!
VII. HRTM Event Planning Activities

- Gimbles Program
- 2022 Pickle Me Festival
- Kalahari Property Tour
- Stroudsmoor Country Inn
Recreational leadership students completed the challenge course training at Stony Acres. The training encompasses leadership development, group dynamics, and trust-building activities through experiential learning and leadership activities. The two-day training also encompasses basic belaying, low elements challenge course, and lead processing/reflecting training to help future leaders develop the capacity to lead a variety of outdoor leadership initiatives in a challenge course outdoor recreation setting.

Students passing the written and practical exam will be receiving a Stony Acres Teambuilding on Low Elements and Basic Belaying Badge.
This summer, the HRTM department had a successful Hospitality Leadership Development Summer Camp this past month. A big shout-out to corporate sponsors for supporting our first Leadership Development Summer Camp for our feature hospitality leaders. The emphasis of our program is to help students understand the diverse culture in the hospitality industry through leadership development activities, guest speakers, and property tours to better understand the various career pathways and opportunities within the hospitality, recreation, and tourism industries.

Special thanks to our corporate partners: Christopher Barrett, PMVB; Diana Stanukenas and Katelynn Hoffmann, Kalahari Resorts and Conventions; Jeffrey Rudder and the executive team, Skytop Lodge; David Makarsky, Mary Popovich, Rachele Wilkinson, Ryan Smith, and Nicholas Smith Camelback Resorts; PPL Foundation Sustaining Grant and ESU Foundation; Dr. Sylvester Williams, Dean of the College of Business and Management; Chuck Meitner, and Yongwook Ju, HRTM Faculty; Maddy Constantine, Stony Acres; Gianna DiLauro and Emma Stephens, HRTM Camp Counselors.
Five students taking Perspectives of International Tourism Management spent a week in San Jose, Costa Rica. The students visited hotels, restaurants, theatres, coffee farms, and government and tourism agencies learning the hospitality and tourism industry and partake in environmental education programs.
The Hospitality & Tourism Management Club (HTMC) allows students to gain actionable advice from a wide variety of industry experts. The HTMC provides networking and career contacts. The club hosts field trips to trade shows, casinos, hotels, restaurants, etc.

We are honored to share that the HTMC club received the education program award for our outstanding effort in bringing HRTM majors and the industry together! Students interested in joining the HTMC can do so by searching and adding "Hospitality and Tourism Management Club" in Warrior Link.
A Message from the President:

Hello everyone, my name is Kiondre Kenner and I am the Hospitality and Tourism Management Club president for the upcoming Fall 2023 semester. Hospitality Tourism and Recreation Management is my major. This is my second year at ESU being a transfer student starting in Fall 2022. It has been incredible thus far, I have been able to join a handful of organizations including the Men of Color Alliance (MOCA), Eta Sigma Delta (ESD), Latin American Association (LAA), Black Student Union (BSU), and the Student Government Association (SGA). All have provided me with opportunities to create new bonds with the community. Leadership roles have been crucial in providing valuable challenges to overcome (and still are). Discomfort being most common for many is so important to prevail over. Getting yourself out of your comfort zone will give you growth, confidence, and the spirit to cross that finish line, wherever it lies!

I am anticipating our upcoming semester, feel free to reach out to me about anything about any of the organizations mentioned, or any opportunities to get you more accustomed to ESU! I look forward to meeting new warriors and strengthening our connections throughout our journeys.

The Eta Sigma Delta ESU Chapter was introduced to East Stroudsburg University in 1990, and since then has helped hospitality students become better leaders and prepared for success in the industry.

Eta Sigma Delta has grown to have over 90 chapters. These chapters allow members to distinguish themselves from others in the hospitality field, job recruitment, and educators.

There are six points of honor that ESD students will recognize and shine including Creativity, Diversity-Equity-Inclusion, Ethics, Excellence, Leadership, and Service. To join the society, students need to declare themselves as HRTM majors with a cumulative GPA of 3.0+ and a junior/senior status.

In Spring of 2023, Eight new members were inducted to the ESU Eta Sigma Delta Chapter, International Hospitality Management Society. It was our esteem pleasure to welcome Melissa Onorato, Director of Sales and Catering from Great Wolf Lodge and Morgan Koerber, Alumni Engagement Coordinator from ESU Foundation were our induction ceremony guest speakers. They shared their perspectives of the hospitality industry, leadership, and career guidance to our inductees and ESD members.
XII. Eta Sigma Delta Hospitality Honor Society: ESU Chapter
I was accepted for two internship over the summer working at Reeves International Inc. Breyer Division and Leigh Valley Country Club. I was able to create original video content for product and event promotion which resulted in a 70% increase in engagement on their TikTok account. I also assisted in the planning and preparation of BreyerFest held in July at the Kentucky Horse Park as well as online. My Special Project included producing 30+ original videos to be used during the live broadcast the weekend of the event.

As an Events Intern at Lehigh Country Club, I got the opportunity to plan and execute banquets and member social events. I also assisted in event setup, execution, and breakdown. I got to take the lead on many decorations set-ups for member events and found that these types of events were my favorite! I got to be part of a large variety of events and gained lots of new experiences I can carry with me as I move forward in the Event Planning industry.
XIII. Internship Spotlight
Mahogany Hurley

The big question is “Why do an internship?” Speaking of my experience, I think an internship is important for all many reasons as it can help create new skills and opportunities that we may not receive otherwise. During my internship at Stroudsmoor Country, I was a Front Desk/Operations Intern where I gained practical and technical knowledge while working at the front desk and sales function.

I really value my internship experience at Stroudsmoor Country as it helped me develop and understand a vast variety of responsibilities and skills required to achieve my career goals. Particularly, Stroudsmoor helped me apply knowledge learned from the classroom and apply it to the real world, in our hospitality industry.

My internship experience also helped me develop important soft skills, time management, organizational skills, adaptability, problem-solving, group dynamics, and teamwork. I want to thank Linda Forte for mentoring and guiding me along the way. It was a pleasant and wonderful experience interning at Stroudsmoor Country Inn.
During the summer of 2023, I interned at the Chocolatier, a restaurant entering its third year located at the front entrance of Hershey Park. During the summer, on average, The Chocolatier sees anywhere from 1200-1500 guests per day.

Being somewhere I grew up going to as a kid, I felt the Hershey Company is an exceptional opportunity for me to learn and grow not only in my career but as a person. I spent my summer as a Culinary Intern, further developing my culinary skills while also gaining significant leadership experience.

The Chef team did an immaculate job on giving me real world experience and helping me accomplish my goals I set forth for myself. I highly encourage ESU students to consider the Hershey Company as a place to complete your internship. There is so much opportunity with Hershey, it is called the sweetest place on Earth for a reason!
Dear Current HRTM Members,
My name is Paige Amrein, and I am a recent graduate of the ESU hospitality program. Upon concluding my studies in December 2022, I had a job lined up with the Marriott Voyager Program to start as a front desk voyager at the Westin Newport in Jersey City in June 2023. In the meantime, I will be working at the River House at Odette’s, a boutique hotel in New Hope, PA, where I have completed my internship. My main responsibilities included working as a front desk agent, housekeeper, housekeeping inspector/supervisor, and concierge guest services. I also assist with our exclusive ROOF which is the River House’s membership and hotel guest-only restaurant and bar as one of the few hostess/concierge/member service contacts. During the few months I have been back, I have assisted with membership renewal for the property and the company which also has a property in Stone Harbor, New Jersey called the REEDS. This time has taught me a lot.

A little piece of advice that I would like to give is to make as many connections as possible during your time at ESU, your internships, and job opportunities as they will help you along the way. Also, learn as much as you can as it will only assist you with your future career path and goals.

Good luck with the rest of your journey!

All the best,
Paige Amrein
Carly's job is to manage social and digital marketing efforts for officially licensed NBA merchandise on @nbastore and @nba.
