

Fall 2022 Provost's Colloquium Series Schedule

Date	Speaker(s)	Title
September 7	T. Storm Heter, Ph.D., Professor Philosophy and Cem Zeytinoglu, Ph.D., Professor Communication	Land Acknowledgement Agreements as Solidarity with Indigenous Peoples
September 21	Donna-Marie Cole-Malott, Ph.D., Assistant Professor Professional and Secondary Education	“We are Black on Purpose For a Purpose”: Teaching From a Place of Love, Joy, Spirituality, and Culturally Relevant and Sustaining Education (CR-SE)
October 5	Mark Lichty, J.D., Executive Producer, “Groundswell Rising”	What Can You Do about the Climate Emergency
October 19	David Mazure, M.F.A., Professor Art + Design	How I Made a Game
November 2	Artress White, Ph.D., Associate Professor English	Scottish Genes, African Tapestry: African American Enslavement as Muse and Resistance
November 16	Danielle Lowe, Ed.D., Instructor Reading	The Importance of Reading During Early Childhood Development

All presentations are in Beers Lecture Hall on Wednesdays from 5:30pm – 7pm.