Welcome To Living On Campus At ESU

Congratulations! You have just become a member of the residential community at ESU, a community of students that identify themselves in many different ways with distinctions that include, but are not limited to, race, ethnicity, sex, gender identity and expression, sexual orientation, national origin, religion, age, physical ability, mental ability, class, cultural history and life experience. As a member of this community you have both rights and responsibilities.

You Have The Right To:

► study, sleep, and socialize in your room.
► live in a supportive and stimulating community where your individuality is valued and your uniqueness is respected and appreciated.
► involve yourself and others in promoting the health, safety, and security of all residents.
► enjoy access to a variety of facilities and services provided by the university.

You Have The Responsibility To:

► consider the needs of other residents and balance them with your own needs; just as you expect other community members to be considerate of your needs, you are responsible for demonstrating consideration for their needs.
► promote the care of the physical facilities, equipment, and services provided by the university.
► communicate with other residents and staff members. Communication is an integral aspect of building relationships with others and also in seeking assistance to address academic and personal issues.
► let other residents know when they are disturbing you. When other people infringe upon your rights, you are responsible for asking them to alter their behavior out of respect for you. If others don’t respond to your request, staff members will assist you.
► demonstrate a commitment to the ESU community by getting involved! Getting to know other residents, participating in activities, and joining your Community Board are all ways to have fun and make your mark at ESU!
► promote campus safety and security by locking your room door at all times, reporting missing or stolen keys, unpropping outside doors, walking with other people at night, and reporting suspicious persons and activities to University Police and/or Residence Life staff members.
► recognize the rightful place of every other individual in our community.
► demonstrate respect for all individuals, and enjoy the benefits of meeting people who are both similar to, and different from, you.

Living on campus at ESU is often challenging and it’s always educational! As you choose to act in accordance with your rights and responsibilities, you’ll be creating experiences that will assist in your growth and development.
Philosophy of Residence Life

East Stroudsburg University’s focus is to enhance a student’s experience by fostering intellectual, emotional, cultural, ethical, philosophical, social, and spiritual growth. This growth is facilitated by both classroom (curricula) and out-of-class (co-curricula) educational experiences.

The Residence Life Department primarily focuses its energies on the co-curricular experience which is an important and valued component of the student’s development. Opportunities are provided for students to enhance their educational objectives through the living and learning process in residence halls as well as through participation in an assortment of student organizations and activities.

Residence hall living is considered an integral part of the student’s overall educational and personal development. The entire program and the necessary regulations are established with due consideration for each student’s educational and social needs, safety and health standards, and the overall educational objectives of the university.

Residence halls are provided by the university, but the residence hall program itself is an outgrowth of student needs, and is dependent upon student initiative along with residence hall personnel creativity and guidance. The university offers special interest housing options such as the Honors floors, the Global Living hall, and Academic Living Learning Communities.

Each residence hall is supervised by a professional member of the Residence Life Staff who assists students in the areas of counseling, personal development, and adjustment to college. Residence hall facilities and programs are provided to satisfy not only the physical needs of residents, but also the social, academic, and psychological needs. A resident's growth as an individual, and as a member of a group, may be provided for within the residence hall environment.

Diversity Statement

The department celebrates the diversity within our communities. Our residents contribute many differences and distinctions that include, but are not limited to, race, ethnicity, sex, gender identity and expression, sexual orientation, national origin, religion, age, physical ability, mental ability, class, cultural history and life experiences. It is our belief that any willful attempt to repress, undermine, or otherwise damage any person or group constitutes a legitimate threat to the health and welfare of our community.

“We are here to provide a service for our students.
We will treat you as an adult as long as you act like one.
We take pride in our university; it is our home and it will be your home while you are here, so treat it with respect.
Please be assured that we will do our best to make sure that your college experience is as enjoyable and educational as possible!”

ESU Residence Life & Housing Staff
Residence Life & Housing Vision Statement
The Office of Residence Life and Housing strives to integrate the living environment to support ESU’s academic mission while managing the seamless delivery of residential support services.

Residence Life & Housing Mission Statement
The Residence Life and Housing department provides services to students, primarily focusing on the co-curricular residence life experience, which is an important and valued component of their development. Opportunities are provided for students to enhance their educational objectives through the living and learning process in a residence hall as well as through participation in a variety of campus organizations and activities. The department will serve all students in an environment of equality, dignity, and mutual respect. The Residence Life and Housing program supports the overall academic mission of the university and is committed to:

- Providing and fostering an environment within the residence halls that is conducive to academic achievement and scholarship;
- Creating and maintaining a civil residence community with established community standards, by which students are held accountable and responsible for their behavior;
- Creating a residence hall experience that encourages students and staff to go beyond their private interests, learn about the world around them, develop a sense of civic and social responsibility, and discover how they can contribute to the larger society;
- Providing an opportunity for leadership development by encouraging student and staff participation in the residence hall government and other campus organizations and committees;
- Developing and presenting programs and activities that expose students to differences in lifestyles and cultural backgrounds;
- Providing students with affordable, convenient, and reasonably safe accommodations with continued efforts toward the improvement of those facilities;
- Facilitating the adjustment and transition of new students to the university.

Community Standards
As a member of this residence hall, I will abide by the standards and expectations established by this community. Specifically, I will strive to:

*treat others the way they want to be treated.
*promote an environment that fosters learning, focuses on academic achievement and is free from excessive disruption.
*help create and promote an environment that is safe and healthy for all residents.
*support the diverse culture of this hall and respect other residents regardless of the differences between us.
*promote a living environment that is clean, particularly in the areas that all residents use.
*treat the residence hall facility and its furnishings, and the personal property of other residents, with respect.

*hold myself and others accountable for the decisions we make and for the consequences of acting upon them.
*not harm another resident either physically or psychologically.
*confront and/or report others who violate the standards of this community.
*respect the residence hall staff and support the work they do to develop community in the building.
*refrain from using vulgar, foul or derogatory language, particularly in public areas.
*abide by all residence hall regulations and university policies.
Housing Agreement

All first year students, except those commuting from their own homes, within 40 miles from campus, are required to reside on-campus and are assigned housing by the university. Upperclass students may continue to reside on campus. Housing and food service are required on a combined basis for students living in traditional residence halls and suites. For students residing in the University Apartments and the University Ridge, the meal plan is optional.

1. The housing agreement is binding for an entire academic year.

2. The university reserves the right to make room assignments, temporary assignments, consolidations, and reassignments when necessary.

3. Students shall comply with the rules and regulations of the university relating to occupancy and use.

4. A student who commits to a housing agreement is not guaranteed a room until a room is assigned by the university.

5. a) The university cannot be held responsible for theft, damages, or other loss from rooms. Any cases of theft or other loss should be reported immediately to the University Police and to a residence hall staff member. Make sure your door is locked anytime you leave the room when your roommate is not present.

   b) Liability Clause from “Housing Agreement”: The university shall not be liable for the damage to or loss of property of the resident, or injury to the resident occurring in the residence hall or assigned room. It is advised that students secure private insurance coverage under their parent’s homeowners policy or purchase their own homeowners insurance to cover their personal belongings. Residents owning sensitive electronic equipment are responsible for purchasing the necessary power surge protection devices.

6. Request for a change of room or roommate may be initiated by contacting the Resident Director or Graduate Assistant in the respective building. No room change requests will be considered for at least one week at the beginning of each semester. No room changes will be permitted from suite housing or the University Ridge back to a traditional residence hall. Under no circumstance may a resident move without prior written authorization.

Residence Hall Staff

The residence halls are staffed by full-time, professional Resident Directors or pre-professional Graduate Assistants. Residence hall staff members are available to students for emergencies 24-hours a day, and reside in a staff apartment in each of the halls.

Resident Advisors (RAs)

RAs are student para-professionals who reside on each floor in the residence halls. Their general responsibilities are to:

1. Advise students on academic, administrative, personal and social matters within the limits of the Resident Advisor’s experience and capabilities, or to refer students, as necessary, to appropriate services both on and off campus.

2. Be aware of student’s progress and to attempt to identify academic and personal problems before they hinder the student’s success at the university.

3. Develop a tradition of student responsibility that contributes to the proper decorum and general welfare of the residents.

4. Help stimulate an environment that encourages pride in, and unity of, the floor and building through educational, recreational and social activities, self-government, and student involvement.

5. Provide opportunity for student input; disseminate official university information; and explain administrative policies at regularly scheduled floor meetings.

6. Supervise the operation of the floor, including enforcement of university standards and regulations, and make disciplinary referrals through the student conduct process when appropriate.

7. Be responsible to the university for the overall supervision/administration of his/her floor. He/she is the official representative of the university on the floor.

5. a) Mail addressed to individual residence halls is delivered Monday through Friday and distributed to assigned mailboxes. Students are expected to check and remove mail from their boxes on a daily basis. Outgoing mail may be deposited in the appropriate location in each residence hall. UPS, DHL, FedEx, and other private carriers also deliver to campus. Residents should notify correspondents of their correct mailbox number and residence hall to facilitate mail delivery. 6. Custodians and maintenance personnel may be on the floors every day at any hour to perform their tasks. Please dress accordingly.

7. Requests for repair work must be reported to any residence hall staff member who in turn will submit the appropriate work order request. (A program to allow students to enter their own work orders is being developed. This is already being done at the Ridge)

8. All residence halls are locked 24 hours a day. Residents are issued an ID/e-card that will admit them to their assigned hall. Visitors must contact a resident to escort them while in the hall.

9. A security alarm system is present on all residence hall exit doors except the main entrances (except for University Apartments). Details of this system and policy will be given to you by your residence hall staff at the first hall meeting.

10. Vacation and extended absences:
- Extended absences should be reported to a residence hall staff member.
- Before vacations and at the end of the semester, residents will be asked to notify their Resident Advisor of their intended departure date and time. This is necessary so that the staff knows when the building is empty and the building may be secured for the vacation.
- Each student must do the following before leaving for vacation: unplug electrical equipment; close and lock windows; throw away perishable foods and defrost refrigerators; empty wastebaskets; turn off lights; leave the room neat and clean; and lock doors. (University Apartment and Suite residents have additional responsibilities.) Staff will check to see if all tasks have been completed.
- Do not leave valuables in your room over break periods.
- Residents must vacate their residence hall rooms within 24 hours of their last examination for the semester.
- Students living at the University Ridge are permitted to stay during break periods. Specific instructions will be provided to Ridge residents for end of the year move out.

Students who live on campus in university residence hall facilities are subject to the policies within the “Residence Hall Information and Policies” booklet. Their guests are also subject to the same policies and may be asked to leave campus if they are found in violation of them. ESU Students may be held accountable for the behavior/actions of their guests. Individual residents are also held to the specific stipulations of their Housing Agreements. Students may be held responsible for violations that occur in a room when they are present. (See Student Code of Conduct in the “Student Handbook”)

Failure to abide by the policies listed below will result in disciplinary action.

A. Community Living

1. Students are expected to be considerate of the rights of others concerning noise at all times, both within and outside of the residence halls. I. Visitation Regulations

A. Visitation hours may be determined by a vote of the residents of the hall within the parameters established by the university. (The residents may establish shorter visitation hours but may not lengthen them).

The visitation hours currently in effect are as follows:

1. Monday through Thursday a residence hall may have visitation privileges between 10:00 AM and 1:00 AM.

2. A hall may have twenty-four hour weekend visitation beginning at 10:00 AM on Friday and extending until the end of visitation hours on Monday morning at 1:00 AM (except during Summer Session). Visitation is NOT extended to Monday on holiday weekends.

3. Residents of the building have 24-hour visitation (not overnight) privileges within their hall seven days a week. All non-residents must abide by the hours specified in section #A.1. above.

B. Residence hall visitors must comply with established sign-in procedures. Non-ESU students must present a valid photo ID to be scanned at the front desk. Guests may pre-register online. ESU students must swipe their ID/e-card. All visitors must be escorted to and from the lobby area and throughout the building. Unescorted visitors will be required to leave the building immediately and may be subject to disciplinary referral and/or a trespass violation.

C. During visitation hours, the university expects roommates to respect each other’s individual rights. Complete cooperation in regard to study habits, personal habits and periods of privacy should be taken into consideration. As mature individuals, students should handle problems cooperatively.
D. A student may have overnight guests on weekends only. (excluding summer session) Any guests not registered will be considered trespassers, and University Police may prosecute them as such.

E. Minor Guests, (age 17 and younger) will not be permitted in the halls without completing the “Application for Minor Guests in the Residence Halls” form with the required parental signature.

F. Visitation hours will be canceled when the front desk is not staffed. Announcements will be made and appropriate signs posted. Visitation is NOT extended to Monday on holiday weekends. Regular visitation hours are in effect when classes are cancelled.

G. Residents’ guests are the responsibility of their host/hostess.

H. Contact University Ridge for their specific guest policy.

II. Residence Hall Policy Violations

A. East Stroudsburg University students, whether residing in or visiting any university housing, are subject to the policies in the Residence Hall Information and Policies booklet.

Guests of ESU students are subject to these same policies; it is the responsibility of host students to make their guests aware of these policies. Both guests and host students will be held responsible for guest violations of the residence hall policies. Guests in violation of these policies may be asked to leave campus and, further, may be barred from future presence on campus. In addition to the policies in this Residence Hall Information and Policies booklet, residents also are held to the specific stipulations of their housing agreements/contracts. Violations of residence hall policy (this includes non-resident violators) are reviewed and adjudicated by the Director of Residence Life and Housing or Designee.

Such adjudication may be done informally. Sanctions for residence hall violations include:

1. Official Warning
2. Restitution for Damage
3. Residence Hall Probation
4. Educational Sanction
5. Community Service

Any Student who has been, or is currently on, disciplinary probation or deferred suspension that violates residence hall policy will be referred directly to the Office of Student Conduct and Community Standards. Any student who violates residence hall policy in combination with other Student Code of Conduct violations also will be referred directly to the Office of Student Conduct and Community Standards. Their guests may be subject to removal from campus.

B. Appeal Process: Students may appeal residence hall sanctions in writing to the Coordinator of Student Conduct and Community Standards within two working days from the date of their informal disposition. The appeal must be based on:

1. lack of due process; or
2. lack of substantial evidence; or
3. new evidence that has become available and that would substantially change the nature of the case

After hearing and reviewing all evidence presented in the appeal, the Coordinator of Student Conduct and Community Standards may decide to do the following:

1. Uphold the decision
2. Overrule the decision and dismiss the case;
3. Alter the sanction that has been imposed; or
4. Return the matter to the original adjudicator for re-adjudication.

The decision of the Coordinator of Student Conduct and Community Standards shall be final.

III. Student’s Right of Privacy

Summary Statement: University premises occupied by students and the personal possessions of students shall not be searched unless appropriate authorization has been obtained. Students have a right to privacy except in extreme emergencies as determined at the sole discretion of the university or under the following conditions:
A. Scheduled Residence Hall Room, and Health & Safety Inspections – There will be room inspections throughout the academic year and prior to the closing of university residence halls and University Apartments for university break periods (Thanksgiving, Intersession, Spring Break). Students residing on campus will be given prior notice and may or may not be present during the inspection. Room inspections for break periods will consist of a visual inspection of the room to ensure that windows are closed, lights are turned off, electrical items are unplugged, perishable foods removed from refrigerator and that garbage cans are emptied. This is to ensure the security and safety of the room and its contents during the break. During these inspections, if evidence of university policy infractions and/or violations of federal, state or local laws exist, the occupants of the room may be subject to the disciplinary/legal process.

B. Inspections resulting from suspected violations of university rules, policies or regulations or Federal, State and/or local laws – Whenever probable cause leads a representative of the Vice President for Student Affairs, (ex. Director of Residence Life & Housing, Resident Director, Resident Advisor, Graduate Assistant) to believe that an infraction of the university’s rules, policies or regulations and/or federal, state, or local laws is occurring in a student’s residence hall room, that representative is delegated the authority to conduct an inspection of the student’s room after announcing that such an inspection is requested. Should a student deny access, such a denial could result in the issuing of an Administrative Search Authorization, or a criminal search warrant. University Police will be contacted if a criminal search warrant needs to be obtained. If any contraband is found during an inspection, it shall be confiscated and may be used in a disciplinary proceeding and/or criminal proceeding against the involved student(s).

C. Administrative Searches – Administrative searches are those conducted due to probable cause that a university rule or regulation has been violated and that evidence of the violation will be found in a particular place. Authorization is given in writing by the Vice President for Student Affairs (or designee). In extreme emergencies a verbal authorization may be given. Authorizations, which are in the form of an Administrative Search Authorization, shall include the time, date, place, purpose, and scope of the search. The student should be present, if possible, and may have a witness present at the time of the search. Contingent on the circumstances, administrative searches may take place without anyone being present. At the conclusion of the search the student will be notified in writing by the person authorized to conduct the search, of what was found, and the names and titles of all persons conducting the search. Administrative searches are not done in conjunction with, nor under the direction of, the University Police nor on their behalf. Administrative searches are not generally conducted for the purpose of criminal prosecution; if it is believed that potential criminal violations exist, and that an illegal or dangerous object might be found, the Police will be contacted and a criminal search warrant obtained.

D. Searches and Entries by University Police – University Police searches and/or entries to a student’s room in order to conduct a police action are normally done by student consent that has been given freely and intelligently. University Police may gain entrance without the prior consent of the student for the following reasons:

1. Police reasonably believe that a person within the room is in need of immediate emergency aid due to injury, accident or medical condition.
2. Police are in pursuit of a person suspected of committing a felony.
3. Police are in possession of a valid arrest warrant and have reason to believe that the person is inside the room.
4. Police action is imperative because there exists a threat of physical harm to police officers or to other individuals.
Keying In Protocol

A master key may be used for student room entry for the following reasons:

- When there is a suspected violation.
- When there is a health, safety or welfare concern.
- When prolonged noise or music is coming from a room.

1. The RA will secure a second staff member before entering a room using a master key.
2. RA will knock on the door.
3. RA will announce himself/herself.
4. RA will knock a second time and announce that if the door is not opened voluntarily he/she will be keying in.
5. RA will make a visual observation of the room and then follow the already established procedures for policy violations.
6. RA will complete two Residence Hall Room Entry Notification forms and leave one copy in the room.
7. RA will attach the original Residence Hall Room Entry Notification form to the Communication/Incident Report.

IV. Housing Consolidation Policy

*At any point during the semester, any student who finds him/herself in a double room without a roommate has the following options:

1. Consolidate with another student in the same residence hall who is without a roommate, or voluntarily move to a space in another residence hall.
2. Request that the Resident Director re-assign him/her to a double room with a roommate.
3. Opt to pay the single room rate, if space is available and housing is not overbooked, and remain alone in his/her room for that semester only. This is called a paid single room. (This option is not available to students assigned to a triple room.) You have five business days to opt to pay for a single room once you receive notification from the Housing Office or your Resident Director. If you decide not to secure the room as a single at that time, you will not be given another opportunity to do so later.
4. Stay in the double room by him/herself without paying the single room rate. This is not a single room. The Housing Office may assign another student to the room at any time during or between semesters. (If you choose option four, a roommate could be assigned to you at any time during the semester. While you are there by yourself, you must occupy only half of the room and leave the other side of the room unused and ready for a roommate who could be assigned there at a moment's notice. Once you have been assigned a roommate, you cannot opt to pay for a single room at that time to prevent a new roommate from moving in.)

Abuse of this policy will result in disciplinary action.

*During times when housing is overbooked and during the final four weeks of the semester, the breaking down of temporary housing, assigning of new students, and room changes effective for the following semester will take precedence over this policy.

V. Policy on Wait List Housing

POLICY: Returning undergraduate students, and all entering undergraduate students are guaranteed housing, space permitting, provided they follow the directions on how to apply and secure housing, make deposit(s), and agree to the terms of the contract by established deadlines. All current ESU students are eligible to participate in room selection to secure a space for the upcoming academic semester/year. Once room selection is over, all new requests will be subject to a waiting list, and will be housed as space becomes available, and on a first-come, first-served basis.

PROCEDURE: When an on-campus space becomes available, an offer is made to the first person on the waiting list. Students are permitted to request a specific type of housing and a specific roommate, but these requests can only be honored if space permits. Once an offer is made, students are given 48 hours to respond. Students are not permitted to “turn down” offers due to the location or room type that is available at that time. Once a space is turned down or 48 hours has passed, the Housing Office will move to the next person on the waiting list. The Associate Director of Residence Life and Housing is responsible for making the actual room assignments.
VI. Policy on Temporary Housing

POLICY: The purpose of this policy is to address the way the university houses first-year students in the event of overflow. On-campus housing is guaranteed for all entering first-year students, space permitting. When the housing needs of the first-year student class outweigh the number of available spaces, temporary housing may be utilized.

PROCEDURE: Students are assigned randomly to temporary housing by the Housing Office. Whenever possible, these spaces are spread out among several halls. Temporary assignments are made until all spaces are filled by the Associate Director of Residence Life and Housing.

As spaces become available in regular rooms, students in temporary housing will be called, based on their geographical proximity to the vacancy, and offered the chance to move.

VII. Fire Emergency Information

A. FIRE REGULATIONS

Commonwealth Law requires that evacuation drills be held regularly in university residence halls. Your assistance and cooperation is expected when drills are held. Every student must evacuate the building during the drill. Residents refusing to cooperate with the evacuation regulations are subject to disciplinary action and/or removal from university housing.

B. WHEN THE FIRE ALARM SOUNDS:

1. Close your windows.
2. Dress appropriately for weather conditions as you may be outside for an extended period of time. Always wear shoes and take a towel or blanket to wrap around yourself should it be necessary to pass through flames or smoke.
3. Do not open your room door if it is hot to the touch. If it is hot, chances are the heat in the hallway will be so great that you would suffocate. In this case, you should insulate the door with towels or blankets to make it airtight, open the window and wait for a net or ladder.
4. At night, turn on the room light so a quick check can be made from outside the building to see that all occupants are awake and the rooms are cleared.
5. Leave the door to your room closed. Your Resident Advisor will attempt to make a quick check of every room.
6. Leave by way of the nearest exit. If flames or smoke are in the nearest exit, proceed to the nearest alternate exit.
7. Do not run or panic!
8. Move back at least 100 feet from the building to the designated assembly area.
9. Do not return to the building until you have been instructed to do so.

C. SAFETY EQUIPMENT

Fire safety equipment is essential in case of an emergency; therefore, any tampering with fire hoses, fire extinguishers, smoke and heat detectors, sprinkler systems, or fire alarms is strictly forbidden. Violation of this rule may lead to dismissal from the university, severe fines and prosecution under appropriate criminal laws. Setting fires and using explosive devices are also expressly prohibited. Several fires have occurred in the past as a result of such carelessness. A fire can be serious - don’t gamble with your safety.

D. IF YOU DISCOVER A FIRE:

1. Set off the nearest fire alarm. This will alert residents to evacuate the building.
2. Call the University Police – tel. 911 and report the location of the fire.
3. Notify the nearest residence hall staff.
member who will take charge of the situation until the arrival of the police officers and/or fire department.

VIII. Safety Tips on Campus

• Walk or study with friends. Avoid working, studying, or being alone in buildings, residence halls, or on the campus grounds.
• Report all suspicious activity to the University Police - tel. # 911.
• Don’t shower in a deserted locker room. In residence halls, shower when people are around.
• Don’t study alone in deserted areas of the library or other isolated places.

• Don’t leave valuables displayed in your room or vehicle.
• Don’t prop open outside doors.
• Don’t admit any unescorted persons into the residence halls.
• Don’t allow strangers into your room.
• Know where the emergency phones are located.
• Call the Student Escort Service at (570) 422-3063/3064 between 7:00 pm and 5:00 am—for an escort anywhere on campus.

IX. Policy for Medical Waste Disposal for Residence Halls

Environmental laws, attitudes, and risk assessment require ESU to be responsible and accountable for disposing medical waste. The University Health Services staff is available to offer any assistance needed by these students.

Specific questions regarding these guidelines should be directed to your Residence Hall Director, or to the University Health and Safety Officer, (570) 422-3235.

Being Clear About Safety and Security
An easy way to remember what to do to protect yourself and others is to be CLEAR about your role in promoting safety and security. To be CLEAR, you must keep the following in mind:

C ondoms: For students who choose to be sexually active, it is imperative to use a condom each and every time you have sex to help prevent HIV/AIDS and other sexually transmitted diseases, as well as unwanted pregnancy. (Condom machines are in all laundry rooms.)

L ocks: Lock your room door whenever you leave your room for any amount of time, even if it is only to go to the bathroom. Residents are expected to carry their keys at all times. Also, respect the security of outside door locks by NOT propping doors open and by removing props others have placed if you see them.

E scorts: Use them! Don’t make a habit of walking alone at night-utilize the ESU escort service by simply dialing #(570) 422-3063/3064, or 911

A lcohol: Don’t allow it to inhibit your ability to take care of yourself and make sound decisions concerning your safety and security.

R eport: Report any incidents of crime, lost keys, suspicious persons, safety or security hazards, and any unusual circumstances to residence hall staff and/or University Police.

By being CLEAR about your role in protecting yourself and others, you can help make ESU a safer, more secure place for everyone!
